GETTYSBURG'S SCHOOLS JOIN EDUCATIONAL TV COUNCIL

Reversing a decision made last March, members of the joint school committee of the Gettysburg Joint School District voted unanimously Monday evening to enroll the system as a member of the South Central Pennsylvania Broadcasting Council which will make educational TV available to Gettysburg pupils.

The action will involve an immediate cost of $2,952 based on pupil enrollment and will require future expenditures for UHF antenna and receivers at various school buildings here. Presently only the senior high building has the required antenna.

It was estimated that antenna alone will cost about $2,000. The cost of new UHF receivers or converting present sets to take UHF would be additional. The school budget for this year has $5,000 in it for possible ETV uses, the board was told.

PROGRAMS "LOOK GOOD"
The matter was brought before the directors by Supt. H. Edgar Riegle after it became apparent that board plans to install a closed circuit television system at the senior high school will be delayed for a number of months because a contractor failed to carry out his contract.

Mr. Riegle said he has seen a copy of the list of programs to be offered beginning in mid-November by the ETV station at Hershey and "it looks good," he said. He also noted that the chances for good reception here of the Hershey station have been improved since last spring by the assignment of Channel 33 to the station instead of a number in the 60's. "Sooner or later, we will really want to get into this program," the superintendent said during the discussion before the vote was taken.

R. M. WEAVER, COLLEGE GRAD, DIES MONDAY

Rufus Miley Weaver, 79, Gettysburg College graduate and for many years a patent attorney in Washington, D. C., died Monday at his home there at 1433 Iris St. N.W.

He was a native of Gettysburg and a son of the late George J. and Lucilla (Wolf) Weaver. He was graduated from Gettysburg College in 1907 and went to Washington in 1909 after serving as an assistant in physics at Gettysburg College for a year. He earned a law degree at the National Law School and then studied patent law at Georgetown University. He passed the District bar exam in 1914 and was admitted to practice before the U. S. Supreme Court.

Mr. Weaver received both AB and the BS degrees from Gettysburg College and a Master of Arts degree the year after graduation. He received his LL.B. degree from the National University and his LL.M. from Georgetown in 1913. The same university awarded him the degree of Master of Patent Law in 1914. He worked for a year in the Bureau of Standards at Washington before going to the U. S. Patent Office in 1910. He retired to the private practice of law in 1946.

SERVICES HERE FRIDAY
He was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of the Sons of the American Revolution and the Lutheran Place Memorial Church in Washington.

Surviving are his widow, the former Leila M. McElroy, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Rodkey, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Explains Safety Rule At Sr. High

A new rule in the Gettysburg Senior High School under which pupils may not stop at hall drinking fountains while classes are passing was explained Monday evening to members of the Gettysburg Joint School committee by the principal of the school, Morris Quint.

"This rule has been put into effect for the protection of the pupils," Quint said. He told the directors that in another school in which he was principal a pupil was bumped while drinking at a fountain and suffered a severe mouth injury including the loss of several teeth.

"Ever since that there has been a rule in my schools against using drinking fountains when classes are passing. The rule is not a punishment. It is in force for safety reasons. Pupils may secure permission from their classroom teachers to go to drinking fountains after classes have returned to their rooms," he said.

MRS. TOPPER BADLY HURT IN NEARBY CRASH

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Topper, 20, Frederick, was listed in satisfactory condition in the Warner Hospital after she and two other persons were injured in a two-car collision Saturday at the intersection of State Route 76 and Appold Rd., two miles north of Rocky Ridge, Md.

Maryland state police said Mrs. Topper, who is six months pregnant, suffered severe multiple lacerations of the head and forehead and lacerations of both knees when the car in which she was riding hit another auto broadside when it came out of the intersection at 7:40 p.m. Saturday.

HIT BROADSIDE
Trooper E. F. Tracey said the 1961 sedan, driven by Thomas Woodrow Wilson, Thurmont, was stopped for a sign sign at Appold Rd. at the intersection with Rt. 76. Apparently he did not see the oncoming 1964 compact operated by Joseph L. Topper, 22, Frederick, because he entered the intersection and was struck broadside by the Topper vehicle.

Also injured were Topper, who was treated and released from the hospital with minor bruises, and a passenger in the Wilson auto, Carroll Ann Bentz, 7, of Graceham, was treated for minor abrasions by a Frederick doctor. Tracey said Wilson failed to grant the right-of-way.

PROGRAM ON BIRDS GIVEN GARDEN CLUB

The September meeting of the Biglerville Garden Club was held Monday evening in the St. Lutheran Church social room under the president, Mrs. J. H. Donahar, presiding. Plans were announced for several members to attend the Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania convention to be held at the Hilton Hotel in Pittsburgh, September 28-30.

Tickets are being sold for the open meeting October 22 at the Biglerville High School auditorium. Mrs. Charles Dietz will speak on "Christmas Arranging with Antiques." Mrs. Dietz is a popular lecturer. This meeting will be open to the public.

LOCAL COUPLE DEFENDANT IN $5,000 ACTION

Edwin A. Hendry, Stratford, N.J., has brought an action in trespass in Adams County court asking "in excess of $5,000 damages" from John J. and Rita J. Knox, 39 York St., for injuries he allegedly received November 12, 1961, when allegedly bitten by Dr. and Mrs. Knox's St. Bernard dog.

According to the papers filed in the prothonotary's office by Attorney Gerald Walmer, Hendry was a house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Knox on November 12, 1961. At that time, he claims he went into a room at the home, not knowing that the dog was there, and was "viciously attacked, mauled and severely bitten" by the animal. He alleged the dog had "a propensity for viciousness, which propensity had been exhibited on numerous prior occasions."

CITES INJURIES
As a result of the dog's attack, Hendry claims he suffered "permanent and disabling injuries of the hand as a result of bites from the dog," and as a result "is unable to pursue his normal employment as a structural steelworker."

He alleged that he also suffered, as a result of the attack, an aggravation of a heart condition, stress ulcer and other nervous disorders and mental suffering.

He asks $395 for medical and hospital bills, $392 for direct loss of earnings and $5.25 for damages to his shirt and other clothing, and then states that he asks "judgment in excess of $5,000."

Must Save More Water

With thanks for their cooperation so far, Fairfield residents were asked to "tighten their belts a little more" on water conservation there as the town's water supply becomes critically low.

The newly-drilled well with its state-approved water supply cannot be turned into the town's mains until a pump is installed and Wilbert Fleming of the Fairfield Municipal Water works said today he hopes installation may be complete in another week.

The pump has not yet arrived but has been on order for more than a week. This morning the water level in the town reservoir had dropped 41 inches below the spillway and is falling at the rate of nearly two inches a day. The town's consumption of water exceeds the present supply by that much, Mr. Fleming said.

He expressed the hope that townfolk can further reduce their use of water until the supply becomes available.

He called the present situation "critical."

To Address Scouts On "First Aid"

Sterling Roth, of the Biglerville firemen's ambulance corps, will speak on "first aid" at a meeting of the Bendersville Boy Scout troop Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the Bendersville community hall.

Author Of Children's Books To Speak Here On Thursday

Nan Hayden Agle, who authors children's books on such widely separated topics as history and the space age, will speak Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Adams County Public Library on E. High St.

She will appear under the auspices of the Friends of the Library but the meeting is open to the public.

Mrs. Agle writes from a forest retreat along Lake Roland, near Baltimore. She co-authors a series dealing with three boys in collaboration with Ellen Wilson, who is the wife of William Wilson, a professor in Bloomington, Ind., who was formerly a Baltimore newspaperman.

She also writes books of her own and they have dealt mainly with Maryland history: "Princess Mary," "Constance, the Honeybee," and "Makin' and the Dauphin." The last is a true story of an Indian boy in Maryland in 1525 just as Princess Mary deals with an Indian maiden of Maryland.

VENTURES INTO SPACE
It was the seventh book in the series on triplets named Abercrombie, Benjamin and Christopher, that Mrs. Agle and Mrs. Wilson moved into the space age and Mrs. Agle admits the move was made with some trepidation.

"I knew nothing about space," she said, "and neither did Ellen. We ventured into space unwill-

SPOOK QUEEN TO BE CHOSEN OCTOBER 26

The annual "Adams County Halloween Queen Contest" held as part of the Halloween observance will be conducted this year on October 26 at the Student Union Building at Gettysburg College campus, Charles Pentz, co-chairman for the contest, said Monday evening at a meeting of the Halloween committee in the Holiday Inn.

Efforts will be made to have "12 to 14 contestants" participating from the various high schools of the county. A number of "acts" or instrumental or vocal groups will provide entertainment in addition to the acts presented by the competitors. There will be no admission fee.

Final plans for the event are to be outlined at a meeting of the committee tonight at the Adams Electric Cooperative building, Pentz said.

WORK OUT DETAILS
A committee comprising Robert Diehl, Ray Thompson, Ernest Krape, Robert Neary, Ivan Riggeal, Joel Hill and Robert Geigley will work out final details for the "Halloween art" competition held for children. Present plans call for cardboard of poster size to be provided the children who will make posters with paint, crayon or by pasting cutouts, whichever they prefer.

Warren Apper will inform organizations of the prizes to be awarded in the parade. General Chairman J. William Ditzler reported that "various groups have announced that they will be in the parade."

The finance committee, consisting of Clyde Markle, Arthur Warman and Robert McCoy, will ask fraternal clubs to sponsor divisions of the parade competition.

Clyde Markle reported purchase of 400 numbered signs to be carried by participants in the annual parade.

Contributions are sought to cover the approximately $1,500 expense of the Halloween programs, Ditzler said. Donations may be sent to him at his home, 425 Baltimore St. Checks should be made payable to the Gettysburg Halloween fund.

Services Monday For Mrs. Lippy

Funeral services for Mrs. John D. Lippy Sr., 88, 47 Chambersburg St., who died Friday at the Homewood Church Home, Hanover, were held Monday afternoon at the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., conducted by her pastor, Rev. Dr. Howard Schley Fox. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

2 ARE GIVEN PRISON TERMS; OTHERS FINED

Harmon Ridgeway Jr., Gardeners R. 2, was sentenced to from six months to a year in the Allegheny County Workhouse Monday afternoon by the county court on a charge of corrupting the morals of a minor.

Joseph Seaton Cool, 24, Emmitsburg, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail and ordered to pay $100 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of driving while under the influence. According to the report of Cumberland Twp. Police, man Bernard V. Miller, who made the arrest, Cool admitted to the officer that he had drunk a fifth of vodka at home, went to a tavern and drank some whiskey and then bought a dozen bottles of beer, which he was in the process of drinking as he drove along and was spotted by the officer.

Eddie Demps, Wintergarden, Fla., charged with burglary and larceny of a 12-volt battery from a sprayer in Peter Brothers, Inc., barn, was sentenced to serve 30 days in the county jail, starting August 14 and to pay the costs. He was told that since he had already served the jail sentence he would be freed on payment of the costs. Demps said he took the battery when the battery in his car failed to operate. He said he had been employed by Peters Brothers, but they had no further work for him and he was about to drive to another orchard to obtain work.

ROTARY HOSTS BASEBALL NINE MONDAY NIGHT

The Rotary Little League team was honored Monday night at a meeting of the Rotary at the YWCA.

Dr. Frederick Tilberg, who has served as club representative on the Little League board for many years was the speaker and congratulated members of the team upon winning the championship this summer. It was the third title for the Rotary-sponsored group since the club began support of a team when the league was established 11 years ago.

Dr. Tilberg held that "some who have been active in Little League have been parents of boys participating, some have been active because they particularly like baseball, and many of those who have been most active have done so simply because they believe it an excellent program which provides clean sportsmanship for hundreds of boys in Gettysburg over a period of 11 years."

FOUNDED IN 1953
Rotary was "one of the four sponsoring agencies which founded Little League in 1953. Four years ago the league was expanded to include six teams—or 90 players."

"Richard Dreas was the first coach for the Rotary team, followed by Jack Bream, George Bender, Robert Weikert and now George Hale."

Rotary, he said, has two representatives on the league board, himself and Frank Ruth who was appointed last year. Dr. Tilberg served as president of the league for two years.

Coach Hale spoke in praise of the board accepted the resignation of John Toggas as wrestling coach. However, he will be held to his 60-day contract agreement.

Donald Hudson, superintendent, reported the following enrollment: Grade One has 156 students, an increase of 25 over last year; Grade Two, 121, a decrease of 38; Grade Three, 153, an increase of 18; Grade Four, 136, a decrease of 30; Grade Five, 161, an increase of 30; Grade Six, 130, a decrease of 12; nongraded, 12 students, a decrease of three. The total enrollment in the three elementary schools is 869, 10 less than last year. The Seventh Grade has 146, an increase of 20; Eighth, 126, an increase of 18; Ninth, 119, an increase of eight; Tenth, 191, a decrease of 26;

Car Burns In Lincoln Square

The 1959 Chevrolet sedan of Mrs. Lucile Black, Aspers, was almost completely destroyed and her two children, age three and five, were rescued unharmed when the vehicle burst into flames at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in Lincoln Square near the Plaza Restaurant.

Mrs. Black had driven into Gettysburg and left her two children in the car while she went to a nearby store to shop. She said she was gone about 10 minutes and when she emerged from the store she saw her auto engulfed in smoke billowing a hundred feet high.

She rushed to the car and rescued her two children, Gregory, 3, and Jeff 5, with the help of Borough Officer Ray Breighner.

Fire Chief Robert Hartman was told that one of the youngsters found some matches in the glove compartment and apparently had ignited them. Hartman said the loss is approximately $500. Mrs. Black said the sedan is insured.

MAYOR WEAVER REMINISCES IN KIWANIS TALK

Gettysburg Mayor William G. Weaver addressed the Kiwanis Club at its meeting Monday evening in the Holiday Inn and reminisced about the old Gettysburg of his youth.

Weaver's talk was based upon a series of memoirs he is currently engaged in writing. "I plan to publish them when they are finished," he stated. "So many things have occurred since I was born in Gettysburg in 1900, and there have been so many changes that I decided to write down what I could recall."

Weaver recalled that the old timers still referred to Chambersburg St. as Main St. until 1916-17. Lincoln Square was known as "The Diamond." Broadway was being developed by Martin Winter, who was one of the best and farsighted developers we have ever had in Gettysburg, according to Mayor Weaver.

LINCOLN SQUARE
Lincoln Square had no center plot until around 1919, and people were accustomed to go right through the center. In 1913 when the 50th Anniversary of the Battle was held, the troopers assigned to direct traffic made everyone go around, rather than through the center of the square.

Weaver related that one of the nine hotels in town was the Globe, later the Hoffman House, about where Sherman's store now stands. As a youngster, he saw the aftermath of a murder committed there. "Two men had been drinking. They came out of the bar into the alley which was

Democrats To Open Office Wednesday

The Adams County Democratic Committee will meet at the courthouse Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Fred G. Klunk, chairman, said today.

After the courthouse session Klunk will head the group and go to the Epley garage, Chambersburg St., where headquarters will be opened for the fall campaign.

The annual Democratic dinner will be held October 22 in Banker's restaurant, Littlestown. Klunk said. Former Governor George M. Leader and Miss Genevieve Blatt, Democratic nominee for U. S. Senator, will be the speakers.

LOCAL COURT UPHOLDS PLEA BY POLICEMAN

The Adams County Court Monday sustained Mannard Masemer's appeal from suspension as police chief by McSherrystown, and directed that the town pay Masemer the salary due him during the suspension.

At the same time the court said in its 28-page opinion that the town was acting within its legislative powers when it reduced Masemer from chief of police to policeman and cut his salary.

The court ruled that "a review of the charges (against Masemer by the borough), three of which are at least two years old, brings us to the conclusion that most of them are not established by clear and convincing evidence and the minor difficulties which are established are not sufficient to warrant suspension of the officer."

Judge W. C. Sheely's opinion also explained why Masemer may have been reluctant, in some instances, in agreeing to directives by the mayor and others:

20-YEAR SERVICE
"Chief Masemer has been the only regular full-time officer in McSherrystown for nearly 20 years and the borough secretary testified that he has been a good police officer. He has also had the full responsibility for maintenance work on the streets, etc."

"Apparently over the years he has had to work out his own time schedule and it is only recently that the mayor has assumed his proper responsibility for directing the police work. The chief has not always agreed with new programs and has had difficulty adjusting to new policies which interfered with his former programs. However, when his duties were explained to him, he did accept the responsibilities. He is also quite deaf and the testimony indicates that he did not always

COACHES ARE LIONS' GUESTS MONDAY NIGHT

Gettysburg Lions were hosts Monday evening to the coaching staffs of Gettysburg College and Gettysburg High School at the service club's weekly dinner meeting at the Cannon Cafeteria, Steinwehr Ave. President S. M. Raffensperger presided and Henry T. Bream, athletic director at the college, was in charge of the program.

Head coaches discussed season prospects and introduced members of their staffs.

Introduced by George S. Forney, high school athletic director, Head Coach Don Young said he was "happy" with the way his 15 boys played in their Friday night tie with Westminster in the school's opening game of the season. "The last 24 minutes of that game were the best I've seen at Gettysburg High School," Young said. Gettysburg High plays Boiling Springs next Saturday night.

HEAR COACHES
These other members of the high school coaching staffs were introduced: Pat Kelly, head coach for the junior high; James M. Papoutsis and Jude Smith; Earl Little, variety backfield coach; Charles Lilly, javayee coach and Gene Steinkuck.

Gene Haas, head coach at the college, called on Gene Hummel, line coach, who saw "fundamentally good prospects" for the line this year, and Howard Shoemaker, backfield coach, who said college has a "real good offensive first unit" but has some depth problems. He said injuries already have hurt.

Haas told the Lions that last year Gettysburg passed as many times as they ran and hope to instill in their opponents the fear of a pass on every play this year.

Schoolroom Boycott Is Increasing N.Y. Absences

By RICHARD F. WHALEN
NEW YORK (AP) — A classroom boycott led by white parent groups increased absences 17 per cent above normal in New York City's public schools Monday. Boycott leaders predicted many more pupils would be absent today.

The demonstration against a pupil integration program was most effective in schools involved in the program and in schools that parents thought would be involved.

School board President James B. Donovan said he was in touch with law enforcement officials "to determine whether criminal violations of law have been committed."

MAY LOSE AID
Calvin E. Gross, superintendent of schools, warned that the city could lose $2 million in state aid if absenteeism today is the same as Monday.

"You've made your point," he told parents. "Let's get the students back to school."

Despite the boycott, the integration program was put into

275,638 ABSENT

Absences in the million-pupil school system — largest in the nation — totaled 275,638. Normal absenteeism is 100,000.

In schools directly affected, which have 13,000 pupils, absenteeism ranged from 18 to 65 per cent. Three schools not directly affected by the program reported that fewer than 10 per cent of the pupils showed up. One had no pupils.

Absenteeism was about 40 per cent at the eight elementary schools that were "paired" to achieve better racial balance. Nearby white and Negro schools have been merged into one school body using the two school buildings.

Vatican And Hungary Sign Accord; 5 Bishops Named; Mindszenty Nears Release
VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican and Communist Hungary signed an accord today giving the Vatican at least partial administrative authority over the Church in that country for the first time in 15 years. It paved the way also for the eventual transfer of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty to Rome.

Within minutes after the announcement, the Vatican Press Office said Pope Paul VI had named five new bishops and confirmed one selection by Pope John XXIII but never approved by Hungary.

Vatican officials said the timing indicated the appointment of the new bishops was part of the accord, and that Budapest had approved their nomination.

CONVICTION OF CARDINAL
The Vatican has had no administrative direction over the Church in Hungary since the conviction of Cardinal Mindszenty on charges of treason 15 years ago.

NURSE WINS AWARD

Miss Susan Reaver daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reaver, 545 W. King St., Littlestown, who was one of 16 graduating Monday evening from the York Hospital School of Nursing, was the winner of the operating room award.

TEACHER IS ELECTED BY BERMUDIAN BD.

The board of directors of the Bermudian Springs Joint School Board at its September meeting Monday evening elected a guidance counselor but Supervising Principal Amos D. Meyers reported one faculty position remains open. The unfilled post is in the industrial arts department of the high school.

Miss Doris I. Billow, Waynesboro school system, was elected as a guidance counselor at a salary of $7,000. She is a graduate of East Stroudsburg State College and has done postgraduate work at Penn State. She has a master's degree from George Washington University. She has been teaching or engaged in physical therapy work since 1940.

Mrs. Naomi Prosser, York Springs, was employed as a library clerical assistant and Mrs. Charles Gembe, York Springs, as a cafeteria cashier.

NEW SALARY PROGRAM

The board completed action on a salary adjustment program that was set up a month ago under which teachers starting their third year will receive a $100 increment and teachers starting their fourth to 15th year, $200. No salaries will go above the mandated maximums. The program also includes a merit salary increase schedule which would give up to $300 as a supplemental increment for qualifying teachers.

The supervising principal reported to the board on his investigation of reasons why among 40 eligible boys only about 27 reported for the football squad in the high school. He said he found an assortment of reasons including transportation, lack of interest, physical factors and parental objections. The future of high school football there will be reappraised at the end of the current season.

The audit made by Fishel, Baskin and Dunn of school finances was received showing $513,600 in expenditures during the 1963-64 school year from the general fund and total joint bond spending at $635,091. The cafeteria account showed expenditures of $67,846 with a year-end balance of $49,444.

SPANGLER PRESIDES

Mr. Meyers reported the new athletic field is ready for seeding.

The supervising principal was authorized to install tile at the York Springs Elementary School to correct a ditch problem, install a hood in the high school shop and an exhaust fan in the chemistry room.

Bills totaling $43,293 were approved for payment. Charles Spangler of the East Berlin board was chosen as the presiding officer for the meeting in the absence of the president and vice president.

ASKS VETS TO PARADE HERE

Members of the various Barracks of the World War I Veterans in this area will be invited to take part in the Veterans Day parade here November 8.

The Gettysburg Barracks decided Monday evening at its meeting in the VFW Home, E. Middle St., to participate in the parade.

Four barracks, Mechanicsburg, Carlisle, Waynesboro and Westminster, received their invitations through delegates attending Monday evening's session. Commander Frank Merriken presided.

Among the visiting officials were A. M. VaVenture, Mechanicsburg, deputy chief of staff for the Pennsylvania Veterans of World War I, and Earl L. Leistein, Waynesboro, junior vice commander of District 7 of the World War I group.

A delegation of seven members was present from Westminster. Merriken named Donald MacPhail, Dorsey Rebert and Jesse Leatherman as the nominating committee to report at the October meeting.

Further plans were outlined for a ladies' night dinner in November at which a ladies' auxiliary of the local barracks will be formed.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

LEGION SEEKS 150 MEMBERS

The Albert J. Lentz Post of the American Legion Monday night voted to make a concerted drive to obtain 150 paid up 1965 members by October 3.

Commander-elect Robert W. Fox appointed Harold Dayhoff, Dale Bowling, J. Herbert Bowling, Clyde Bowling, Chester Small, Harold Day, Kenneth Selby, John Maloney and Harold Small as a committee to conduct the drive. So far 60 members have paid 1965 dues.

Commander Kenneth Selby, who presided at the meeting outlined preliminary plans for the installation of officers by district officials at a meeting in the Legion home here October 5.

Preliminary plans were made to bring the blood donor list of the Legion up to date.

CLETUS SMITH DIES SUDDENLY

Cletus B. Smith, 67, of 34 Breckenridge St., a retired plumber, died suddenly Monday evening at 8:20 o'clock while digging a ditch at a cottage at Mt. Newman, Franklin Twp. Adams County Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist said death was caused by a coronary thrombosis.

A son of the late Augustin and Cecilia (Douse) Smith, he was born in Orrtanna, October 13, 1886. He was a veteran of World War I, served in France as a corporal with the 148th Division and was wounded in the Meuse-Argonne. He was a member of the American Legion, the 40 and 8, the Last Man's Club and the Veterans of World War I.

He was employed as a plumber by A. R. LeVan and Son until his retirement three years ago. Surviving are his wife, the former Eva G. Baker, and two sisters: Mrs. Regina Dufresne, Long Island and Mrs. Lloyd Becker Sr., Dayton, O.

Military funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Peters Funeral Home, Carlisle St., conducted by Rev. Donald L. Harper. Interment in the National Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

CASH REGISTER, MONEY FOUND

The cash register stolen Thursday evening from the Dale Arnold Shell Service Station on Buford Ave. has been found on the Gettysburg Battlefield, Borough Police Sgt. Daniel Miller reported today.

Sgt. Miller said Park Chief Ranger John Rogers reported to him at 9:30 this morning that a cash register had been found on Meredith Ave. hidden under a culvert.

Investigation disclosed it was the one removed from the Arnold station. Sgt. Miller said the cash register had been jimmied open but that "there was less damage to the register than might have been anticipated."

Approximately $300 was in the register when the thief or thieves walked into the station Thursday evening while employees were busy working on a car two ways from the office. The thief or thieves apparently picked up the cash register and carried it to their car.

A total of $43 that was under some papers remained in the register when it was found.

Police are continuing their investigation. Similar thefts occurred in the Waynesboro and Chambersburg area prior to the burglary here.

DRIVER FINED

Harry A. Naugle, 27, Fayetteville R. 2, was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for six months, during which he is to pay a fine of $50 and costs, when he appeared before the court on a charge of driving a motor vehicle without a license. Naugle said he had bought a car and knew he was not supposed to drive, but his brother told him he could "fix it up" so Harry could drive the vehicle to his home. He was caught by police on that trip.

ARGUE FLOHR WILL

Arguments were heard in connection with the appeal from the register of wills in the probating of the will of Eva Lohr. Among Mrs. Lohr's effects were two sheets of manuscript, one of which was submitted for probate, and which listed various bequests to persons by their first name. A second sheet indicated that any remainder in the estate — which would be about $20,000 — should go to the Hanover Hospital. In addition two pages of a tablet found among her effects appeared to be a will but bore the notation, "This is not the one." The arguments before the court were a step toward resolving what Mrs. Lohr meant and exactly what represented her true and last will.

School Districts To Get Pa. Money

The office of the county superintendent of schools, M. Francis Coulson, has been notified that payments totaling $44,060.19 are being made by the state to districts in the Bermudian Springs Joint School District as rental reimbursement adjustments.

The payments are being made following final computation of cost data on the Bermudian Springs Merged School District, and the addition to the East Berlin Elementary School.

There will be a payment of $27,061.88 to the Bermudian Springs Merged school district, including York Springs borough and Huntingdon and Reading Twp.s; $7,619.63 to the East Berlin borough district and $9,378.66 to the Latimore Twp. district.

264 REGISTER ON FINAL DAY

A total of 1,675 new registrations was received from the opening of the registration books after the May primary until 10 o'clock Monday evening, the deadline for new registrations prior to November's election.

The report from the commissioner's office today showed 863 Democrats, 761 Republicans and 51 nonpartisan voters were registered during the period. A total of 264 signed on Monday, the last day. Of that number, 118 were Democrats, 130 Republicans and 16 nonpartisans.

The report showed that during the period when the 1,675 new registrations were made there were also 688 changes of address and names listed with the commissioner's office. During the same period the names of 104 persons were removed because of death and 25 by virtue of moving from the county.

As of the May primary, there were 10,666 Democrats, 12,124 Republicans and 314 nonpartisans listed in the county.

The new figures for registrations will be available, clerks at the commissioner's office said, in the near future, after the new names have been added to the rolls and others have been removed.

PASTORS MEET HERE MONDAY

The Pastoral Fellowship of the Adams County Council of Churches, meeting Monday morning at the Presbyterian Church for the first fall session, heard Ivan Fry, northeast area director of the Christian Rural Overseas Program, explain the work of this arm of Church World Service.

CROP, which began in 1947, collects commodities and money in many areas of our country, especially among rural people, and channels them to areas of need around the world, he said.

Believing that it is not enough merely to feed people and keep them alive, CROP has moved into the area of self-help, sponsoring vocational training and the construction of schools. It continues, however, to supply basic food to hungry people in many lands. According to Mr. Fry, a preliminary meeting was held in August in Gettysburg to determine the interest in organizing a CROP drive in Adams County. Sufficient interest was shown to schedule another meeting for November 17.

In the business session, presided over by the Rev. Mark Heiney, president of the Pastoral Fellowship, the Rev. Robert Paden was elected vice president to replace the Rev. Donald Harper.

It was announced that the Reformation Day Service will be held Sunday evening, October 25.

Study Selective Service Histories For Possible Halt In Military Draft

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — The government plans to analyze Selective Service histories of possibly 290,000 men as part of a massive study that could lead to a halt in the military draft.

Officials told The Associated Press today that Pentagon experts conducting the draft studies for President Johnson have asked the Selective Service System to take a 1 per cent sample of the records of all men in the draft pool.

This involves men between 18½ and 35. Selective Service headquarters said there are about 29 million men in that pool.

PURPOSE OF SAMPLING

The purpose of the sample, authorities explained, will be to "get a more definitive view of the status of people within the pool," from which men are called for induction.

Among other things, the sample will seek to find out to what extent men have moved from one deferred classification to another, thus avoiding induction.

Men being drafted these days average about 22 years old. Roughly 100,000 men a year are inducted, all of them going into the Army.

A little-noticed request to Congress calls for $375,000 to finance the sampling job this fiscal year.

CENSUS BUREAU

In another phase of the Johnson-ordered study, it was learned, the Census Bureau will make a special effort in its monthly survey of households to determine the attitude of young men toward military service.

This, too, is to be done at the request of authorities conducting the draft study.

About 300,000 households are likely to be touched by the Census Bureau survey, officials said today.

The draft study was ordered by Johnson last April. He said at the time it will consider alternatives, including "the possibility of meeting our requirements on an entirely voluntary basis in the next decade."

ARENDTSTOWN SURVEY MADE

LeRoy H. Winebrenner, surveyor, told the Arendtstown borough council, at a meeting Monday evening, that he had completed the survey of the borough and that all boundaries meet.

Drafts of the complete borough and all the boundary lines were presented to council. Permanent markers will be placed at the appropriate places.

The secretary was instructed to notify residents who have not done so that they should mow the weeds on their property.

A balance of $4,309.80 was reported by the treasurer, and bills in the amount of $137.41 were approved for payment.

Harold Taylor, president, presided at the meeting, which was attended by five councilmen.

Immediately after the council meeting, a water meeting was held with seven members in attendance. Plans were made to redeem four bonds in November through the Municipal Authority.

Harrisburg Man Injured In Crash

Donald Takowski, Harrisburg, is in fair condition at the Hanover General Hospital after he suffered a skull fracture received Sunday at 10:30 a.m. in a two-car accident at the intersection of Routes 94 and 230.

State Police at Gettysburg said Takowski was traveling south on Route 94 when a car driven by N. E. Myers, East Berlin, pulled across from the stop sign on Route 234 into the path of the Takowski car.

Takowski's car was forced off the road and came to a halt against a utility pole.

He was removed to the Hanover Hospital by the East Berlin ambulance. Myers was not injured.

Damage was estimated at $350 to both autos.

COACHES ARE

Ray Reider, the freshman coach at the college, said his squad of 40 will include boys from Ohio, Maryland, Delaware, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts as well as Pennsylvania. Last year his Freshman team was undefeated. He meets this year's squad for the first time today.

After the meeting, there were meetings of the Special Activities and Membership Committees. The club will meet at the Rec Park pavilion next Monday. Don Miller, Gettysburg Times' circulation manager, was introduced as a guest.

The Statue of Liberty weighs 25 tons.

"GOLDEN SILENCE"

Most people nowadays excel . . . in speaking out of turn . . . we find them as we travel out . . . upon each day's sojourn . . . and I confess that oftentimes . . . I find I'm guilty too . . . of speaking out my inner thoughts . . . or feelings that accrue . . . I guess we all are guilty of . . . this universal fault . . . that leads to many evil things . . . yes, even to assault . . . and so I try to silent be . . . and button up my lip . . . but even with this thought in mind . . . more often do I slip . . . I know it's wrong to voice my views . . . when this or that goes wrong . . . but something way down deep inside . . . bursts forth in lusty song . . . but someday I will wake in find . . . when I am in a rut . . . that I would be much better off . . . if I kept my big mouth shut.

Philly Police Arrest 2 Negroes On Charges Of Inciting Rioting In City

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia police arrested two Negro men and sought a woman on charges of inciting the rioting and looting that burst on north Philadelphia's Negro area just over two weeks ago.

Arrested Monday night were Abyssinia Hayes, 34, who is known as Shaykh Muhammad, and Raymond Hall, 25, also known as Yussuf Abdullah. Police described them as members of an extreme Negro separatist movement. They were charged with conspiracy to riot, inciting to riot, and rioting.

Also sought, on similar charges, was a woman identified as Florence Mobley.

All three are Philadelphians. Deputy Police Commissioner Richard Edwards said there were no indications, at present, that the alleged riot instigators were representing any larger organization, or that they had anything to do with recent rioting in such other northern cities as New York, Brooklyn, Rochester, N.Y., and Paterson, N.J.

FOUNDER OF ORGANIZATION

Hayes founder of the National Muslim Improvement Association of America, and Hall, another of its leaders, were arrested outside their headquarters. It is only a block from the scene of an arrest on Aug. 28 that police say touched off two days of rioting and looting.

Edwards said the instigators created "mass excitement and hysteria, inducing people to do this terrible thing," for example, by the "spreading of falsehoods, that a woman was dead, or that a woman was beaten by the police . . . that sort of thing."

Asked whether only three persons could have incited riots on the scale seen in Philadelphia, Edwards said, "If the climate is right, yes."

FREE ON BAIL

Muhammad, when arrested Monday, was free in $10,000 bail posted following an earlier arrest. That first arrest came when a squad of 100 policemen raided his place, shortly after the riots and seized a gun, two bayonets and ingredients they first said might be the makings of gasoline bombs. Later the material was identified as cleaning fluid. Muhammad was charged with violating a city ordinance regulating the amount of cleaning fluid that can be kept on the premises. Muhammad operates a tailoring establishment at his headquarters.

Another deputy commissioner, Frank Rizzo, said Muhammad ingly at first but as we became involved in our study, we became fascinated." She and Ellen Wilson literally write their books by mail. Mrs. Agle cannot define which chapters of lines she wrote but they work from an outline they conceive together and the finished product is as smooth as if it had one author and no intermediary postoffice.

In the case of "Three Boys in Space" however, it was necessary for Mrs. Wilson to go to Baltimore and spend a week with Mrs. Agle. The complete manuscript was corrected by T. D. Nicholson of the Hayden Planetarium.

FULL-TIME WRITER

Just before the space foray, the two women had brought out "Three Boys and a Helicopter." The triplets also have been involved with a lighthouse, a remarkable cow, a tugboat, a mine and a train among other adventures.

As a result of the success of both the series books and her own ventures into history, Mrs. Agle has become a full-time writer. She formerly was a teacher at the Friends' School, at the Baltimore Museum of Art and in a church nursery school at various times.

She does her writing in long-hand. She and her husband, John N. Agle, have reared two sons. They are grown and have made a grandmother of Mrs. Agle. She is a native of Baltimore, likes Maryland history and has concentrated on Indian stories because "I don't know why they haven't been done before."

DOESN'T "WRITE DOWN"

"Constance, the Honeybee" is a particular favorite of Mrs. Agle and relates the story of how honeybees were brought to America by the Pilgrim. She has had a lot of Indian lore in her own background inasmuch as her father, Charles S. Hayden, was an authority on Indians and she is constantly meeting people who knew him.

She does not "write down" to children. "The main idea, especially of the Three Boys series, is to write for children living in an adult world" is the way she puts it.

"The Writing of Children's Books" will be her theme on Thursday evening and she will include stories about her research into new topics for her steady flow of books for youngsters from ages five to 12.

council was made by Dr. Jacob Heikkinen who told the board "the future is knocking at our door."

SMOOTH SCHOOL OPENING

The directors were told that school had proceeded smoothly but that the junior and senior high schools are crowded as are some elementary grades. The overall elementary enrollment is slightly lower this year than last but high school totals rose sharply. Administrators reported for the high schools and the elementary buildings.

The meeting, which adjourned at 10:15 o'clock, was presided over by President Oren H. Wilson with all districts represented excepting Franklin Twp.

The board opened bids on a used metal lathe being replaced in a high school shop and sold the machine to the highest bidder, Paul Waybright, at his offer of $151.

TO RE-ADVERTISE

The directors were told that the Broadcasting Services, Inc., Palmyra, have failed to fulfill their contract to install closed circuit television system in the senior high school at their low bid of $2,272. The firm does not respond to letters, Douglas Houston, business manager, told the board. July 30 was the completion date for the contract.

The board voted to re-advertise for bids but Supt. Riegle explained that new NDEA regulations will delay that action. The district hopes to get NDEA help on the cost of the TV system.

Mr. Houston announced an auction of discarded school desks and other items on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Lincoln School building. He also suggested a delay in advertising for some new equipment for the junior high kitchen until a new plan for the equipment arrangement can be secured.

OFFER SCHOOL FACILITIES

President Wilson urged each board to be represented at the meeting this evening at the courthouse on assessment procedures.

In response to a Junior Chamber of Commerce request for permission to use the high school athletic field on four or five Sunday afternoons for midget football games, the board offered the field free on Saturday afternoons with the stipulation that the Jaycees would have to pay only the custodial costs.

The Cannonaders, a square dance group, were offered the use of the high school cafeteria one Saturday evening a month from October to April at regular rental figures of $50 per night plus custodial costs.

The monthly report of the school district treasurer, the Gettysburg National Bank, showed general fund receipts of $164,211 last month, expenditures of $52,428 with a month-end balance of $172,711. Bills totaling $57,816 were ordered paid.

STAFF COMPLETE

Supt. Riegle reported the teaching staff is complete for the present and President Wilson commended Mr. Riegle for his "diligence to duty" in the face of special problems in staffing the school for this fall.

Mr. Riegle called attention to the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State School Boards Association in Pittsburgh November 5-7; announced the teachers' institute for October 5 and BIE Day for October 6.

The board formalized the election of Mrs. Edith P. Reinhart as a girls' physical education instructor at the high school at her salary of $6,200. Mrs. Reinhart, who resigned last spring, already has begun her teaching duties.

2 TEACHERS NAMED

The directors accepted the resignation of Mrs. Patricia P. Mummert as a junior high teacher and approved this list of substitute teachers: Jane P. LeVan, elementary, and Patricia Mummert, Howard G. Shoemaker, Frederic S. Froelicher, Sara B. Gideon and Martin Conway in the high school.

The board formally elected two teachers who started their duties last week: Miss Priscilla A. McVay, a junior high math teacher, and Michael J. Nord, a guidance assistant and social studies teacher, each will be paid $4,500. Miss McVay is from Devon, Pa., and is a graduate of Elizabethtown College. Mr. Nord is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College in Minnesota.

WORKING ON ANNEX

Supt. Riegle said flu shots will be offered school employees again this year and said use of the shots last year cut down on the absentee rate among teachers. School courses are making plans for giving

PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY PLANS YEAR'S EVENTS

The Gettysburg Photographic Society met Monday evening at the home of Joseph Kendeheart, W. Middle St. A schedule was set up by which the members of the society every two weeks will present programs of slides at the Adams County Home, beginning October 31, with different members in charge each time.

During this winter season the society will resume meeting in homes of members. Edward Stine, chairman of the program committee set up this list of hosts for the meetings: October, Dr. C. A. Sloat, host assignment.

A vacation picture; November, Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, host, a slide show will be presented from outside group; December, Dr. Frederick Tilberg; January, Edward Stine, assignment, a Christmas picture and a show "Wonderland of Nature" provided by Agfa; February, David Garfinkle, host; March, Maurice Stoops, assignment, "a bread picture" and a talk by Dr. Sloat; April, annual ladies' night dinner meeting; May, Richard Waller, host, assignment, a portrait; June, Dr. H. F. Stuart, host; September, Paul Allen Jr., host, program "Go West with Agfa-chrome"; October, Philip Tyson, host, assignment, "an idea picture."

Dr. Sloat reported on a project of setting up a Sunday evening slide program by nonmembers of the society. These meetings will be in the community room of West St. Branch Bank if arrangements can be made, and will be held for the general public. Dr. Sloat said a list has been drawn of persons who have slides of their vacation trips and they will be asked if they will show the slides at the special programs in order to permit the general public to enjoy the illustrated tours.

In the black and white competition, first place was voted to a print by Dr. Sloat of the lighthouse at Peggy's Cove. Second place to a picture of Savannah, Ga., by Edward Stine. In the color competition, first place was voted to a picture of purple clematis by Dr. Sloat; second to a scene at Cape May by Maurice Stoops; third to a picture "Anne of Buxton," by Dr. Francis Mason; fourth a closeup of a cicada emerging from its shell by Joseph Kendeheart.

PROGRAM ON

The District Four flower show school will be held October 26 to 28 at the Holiday Motel West, near Harrisburg. An invitation was received to attend the Harrisburg Flower Show on October 13 at the Scottish Rite Cathedral in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Donald Tyson introduced the speaker for the evening, Kenneth Tyson, who has been a bird enthusiast since childhood. Through his college years he maintained this interest and spent summers in the Adirondacks and New Mexico studying the birds. The topic for his lecture was "An Introduction to Birds in Adams County." He has made a thorough study of bird life in the county and has identified 125 kinds of nesting birds and 200 varieties of migratory birds. Colored slides were shown of 60 birds along with taped recordings of their songs.

Mr. Tyson has made a field study in Adams County of a 15-acre plot which has meadowland, woods and is surrounded by orchards. He has identified 42 different species of birds in that area. He said that "apparently the spray material used by our fruitgrowers today do not affect our birds."

The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. L. V. Stock, Mrs. Elmer Yoder, Mrs. Charles Spicer, and Mrs. Clair Shillito.

Report Cardinal "Slightly Better"

ROME (AP) — The condition of James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, Roman Catholic archbishop of Los Angeles, was described as "slightly better" today.

The 78-year-old cardinal collapsed Monday during ceremonies opening the third session of the Vatican Ecumenical Council in St. Peter's.

Aides said he was over-tired from his trip from Los Angeles and suffered from the heat in the basilica.

Supt. Riegle also reported that "we are moving ahead as fast as we can" on the plans for the senior high school addition but "that isn't very fast." He said reports are being submitted to Harrisburg involving a "prodigious amount of statistics" and architects have submitted three schematic drawings. He said there is no way to tell now when construction may begin.

Mr. Riegle also called attention to the "wide variety of colleges" represented in the faculty and said such a situation seems "desirable."

Marine's Bride

The former Miss Lorie Lugatimau of Manila, now Mrs. Harold Plank, arrived in the United States early this month from the Philippines and is making her home with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Plank, Gettysburg R. 4, while her husband is stationed with the U. S. Marines Corps at Quantico, Va. She and the local Marine were married in Manila last December 13. He has been a Marine since February 20, 1961, and served a year and a half in the Philippines. Mrs. Plank, a Manila high school graduate, worked as secretary at Gill Naval Base there.

understand the directives. All of this can be readily corrected by the adoption of a simple manual defining duties and procedures."

HELD OTHER JOBS

The opinion stated that Masemer had served as police chief for McSherrystown from February, 1945 to the present year. He had also served as borough supervisor, or maintenance man. For both posts he received $82 a week, or $4,264 per year.

On March 9, McSherrystown Mayor Edward DeCheubell suspended Masemer, without pay, from duty as police chief until the next meeting of council.

March 23 was set as the time to air the charges. Since no written charges were filed within five days after the suspension, as required by law, the court decreed that Masemer "properly refused to appear." On March 23 council decided that the charges would be reviewed at a public hearing April 10. Various exchanges of letters took place between Masemer's attorney and the borough solicitor.

Seven charges were filed by the borough against Masemer and in its opinion the court considered each of the charges separately.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Can Tell Time Now: Included in the improvements at the college campus are the repainting of Cottage Hall and the regilding of the figures on the clock in the tower of Glatfelter Hall. The figures had become very much tarnished but a bronze paint has been used that makes "telling time" easy at a distance of several squares.

Bryan Declines The Invitation:

Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan has declined an invitation to deliver the Memorial Day address at Gettysburg next year. Hon. William T. Zeigler, commander of Corporal Skelly Post 9, G.A.R., spoke to Mr. Bryan at the time of his visit to Gettysburg in July when he delivered his lecture at the Chautauqua. During their conversation Mr. Zeigler extended an invitation to the Secretary of State to be the orator at the exercises in the Soldiers National Cemetery on May 30th. Mr. Bryan would not give a definite answer to the invitation at the time but in a communication now to the commander of the local post the Secretary of State says that it is impossible for him to make arrangements to come to Gettysburg next May. He does not indicate the reason for his failure to accept the invitation but it is believed that the foreign situation and his other duties at Washington preclude his making definite engagements for the coming year, citizens of East Berlin have decided to do nothing further for the present in the way of saving the railroad for the town. Legal steps were contemplated looking toward action which would restrain Mr. Leas from discontinuing the operation of trains but that will not be done just now. Mr. Leas states that the citizens have made him no definite offer for the road though they have the belief that the sum of $17,000 can be raised to save it from going to the scrap heap.

Await Developments:

The celebration at Emmitsburg: Emmitsburg is going to have a celebration on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday which the town and its friends will know as "Booster Week." The events are to open at ten o'clock Monday morning with a big street parade. There will be an entertainment in a big tent in the afternoon, to be followed by a Boy Scout drill, a community supper, the "human flag" and a band concert. In the evening another entertainment is scheduled for the tent. Tuesday the feature will be a baby show at four o'clock in the afternoon, the community supper and sessions of entertainment in the tent morning, afternoon and evening. A speaker from the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture is due for the Wednesday morning attraction. An hour's band concert will open the afternoon and at the close of the tent entertainment there will be athletic contests which will be continued in the evening, followed by a band concert and the closing entertainment. These booster weeks are being taken up generally in this section. Mount Holly Springs is celebrating this week.

County People Buying Autos:

Adams County farmers and residents of the smaller towns and boroughs are not to be outwitted by the agriculturists of other sections of the county and many of them are purchasing automobiles for use in their work on the farm and to take pleasure trips. Local automobile dealers state that more cars are being sold to farmers this season than ever before. The day of prejudice against the automobile has passed and several seasons ago the farmer who was up in arms against these "gasoline wagons," now has a desire to own one himself. The farmer of today has come to see that the automobile of today is not a plaything or thing of luxury but a manufactured article which can be used to a great advantage in both business and pleasure. The excellent fruit and grain crops of the past several seasons have put lots of money in the farmer's pockets. The hard-working farmer and his wife enjoy a little pleasure as well as the rest of mankind.

Church Dedicated:

Zion Lutheran Church at Dillsburg was dedicated Sunday with appropriate services. Rev. George H. Eyerle is pastor of the church. The old structure was burned away during the late fire, the new edifice taking its place. The church cost $20,000. Dr. H. H. Weber, secretary of the board of church extension, who conducted the service, raised $10,000. Ten thousand dollars had been previously raised.

Seminary Opens:

The Theological Seminary opened this morning with a total enrollment for forty-seven, of whom eight are in the Junior class. The address at the exercises was made by Dr. H. C. Allman, of the faculty, whose subject was "The Present Status of Old Testament Criticism." Dr. E. D. Weigle, Camp Hill, president of the board of trustees, offered prayer.

Today's Talk

LIFE'S TRUE NECESSITIES

It is revealing to any of us as to how little we can get along with and be quite happy. We overdraw on what we look upon as essential necessities. Accumulating experiences prove the futility of much that we have heretofore looked upon as important.

Health and peace of mind stand out as two of the great essentials to both success and happiness. All the other things of life, as expressed in wealth, fame, personal power, or temporary acclaim melt away if you have not the health and peace of mind to enjoy any of them.

Too many spend their lives in accumulations that serve them to no purpose later in life, when they have not the health, the time, or the inclination to appreciate. The poor have their wants and their dreams. And often their true necessities furnish them with greater happiness than all the wealth of the richest.

A genuine friend is wealth. An educated heart outweighs a mere educated mind. A good deed is manna to the soul. No one owns a mortgage on beauty. God's gifts are tax free! Every one is worthy of his hire if he aspires beyond mere sustenance. Beyond the feeding of the body comes that greater feeding of the mind and heart.

All of us keep storing away non-essentials, becoming material and mental misers, to no good account. We enrich our simple necessities every time we give something away.

We get nowhere by merely becoming traders. The sun gives forth its light and warmth; there is no profit involved for it is immediately disturbed. Nature asks nothing in return for all its endless gifts.

Instead of trying to ape another, seeking to surpass his exploits, how much finer and more permanent are our efforts to surpass ourselves! And how much more genuine is the happiness that results from such a plan. We are given a big world in which to unfold. All our needs are there for our careful selection. More than we need is often too much!

INSTALL HOLY NAME OFFICERS

The new officers of the Holy Name Society of St. Aloysius Catholic Church were installed following the annual Communion breakfast served in the parish hall following the late Mass on Sunday by the Parish Council of Catholic Women.

Installation ceremonies were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John E. Metz, and the following assumed their duties: President, William Gross; vice president, Raymond Slagle; secretary, Robert Murren; treasurer, Paul E. Altoff; deanery delegates, Z. W. Sanders and Gregory Sanders; marshals, Clyde Rohrbach II and Merle Little.

Grace before meal was offered by the pastor. Two new members, Gregory Sanders and John Jacobs, were in attendance. John R. Rudisill Sr., past president of the society, served as master of ceremonies and introduced the following deanery officers who were guests: Laverne Staub, Hanover, president; Thomas Murren, McSherrystown, vice president; Robert Smith, Conewago, secretary and Daniel Sanders, Gettysburg, treasurer. The deanery president spoke briefly as did the pastor, who welcomed the men in attendance and advocated more devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus during the coming year.

Following installation, President Gross urged the men to attend monthly meetings, to be faithful to monthly Communion Sunday and to boost the Junior Holy Name Society.

MEAR PAST PRESIDENT

Guest speaker for the occasion was Henry Snyder, Hanover, a past deanery president; past marshal of the Diocesan Union of Holy Name Societies and presently serving as the deanery program chairman. His subject concerned the "Holy Name Society, how to put it to work in the nation, community, parish and individual." He urged the men to back their pastor and cooperate with him in every way. He said the Holy Name men should be first to serve in all community projects; he challenged the members to show good examples by attending monthly the Mass and Holy Communion on Holy Name Sunday and to honor the Holy Name in every way possible. The speaker then elaborated on the deanery program for the coming year. The next regular meeting of the parish Holy Name Society will be Sunday evening, October 11, at 8 p.m.

Orioles Beat Twins In Ninth To Stretch Lead In AL; Yanks, Chisox Idle

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

It's been a fun year for Ken Rowe, the workingest pitcher in baseball, and because of him, the Baltimore Orioles are liable to laugh themselves right into the American League pennant.

Baltimore, shopping around for late-season help in their pennant push, picked up relief pitcher Rowe from the Los Angeles Dodgers' Spokane farm club in the Pacific Coast League last week. He pitched his first inning in relief for the Orioles Monday night and came up a winner when Baltimore pushed across a run in the bottom of the ninth to edge Minnesota 4-3.

Rowe, who seems to thrive on work, set an organized baseball record for appearances, coming in 88 times, before being purchased by the Orioles.

BIRDS WIN IN 9TH

The big 30-year-old right-hander enjoyed all the assignments. "It's been a fun year and I've really been lucky," he said. "I consider it a challenge — a personal challenge — each time I'm called in from the bullpen."

Monday night the Twins challenged Rowe and came out second best. Shut out for six innings by Oriole starter Milt Pappas, Minnesota surged back on home runs by Don Mincher and Jimmie Hall for a 3-2 lead.

Pappas left for a hitter in the eighth and Rowe came on to hurl the ninth, his 89th game of the year and first one in the AL.

The veteran pitcher got the Twins 1-2-3 and won it when Luis Aparicio's sacrifice fly delivered the winning run in the bottom of the ninth.

ROBINSON, BOWENS HOMER

In the only other American League game scheduled, Kansas City edged Boston 7-6.

The Orioles' lead over second place New York stretched to 1½ games. Third place Chicago is two games back.

Brooks Robinson and Sam Bowens homered for Baltimore. Ninth inning back-to-back triples by Dick Green and Bill Bryan tied the game and a ground rule double by Ed Charles won it as Kansas City came from behind against Boston.

John Wyatt, another workhorse, made his 73rd appearance for the A's tying Boston's Dick Radatz for the AL record. Jim Konstanty set the major league mark with 74 in 1950.

MAGIC NUMBER 13 FOR PHILLIES

HOUSTON (AP)—With Johnny Callison batting and Chris Short pitching, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Houston Colt 45s 4-1 Monday night to enhance their National League lead and make the magic, pennant-clinching number 13.

Any combination of Philadelphia victories or St. Louis defeats totaling 13 would mean the Phillies have won their first pennant since 1950.

Short, winning his 17th game, gave up four hits, walked just two and struck out five. His earned run average now is about 1.85.

Callison gave the Phillies an early lead, cracking a two-run homer in the first inning. He also had a single and a double and stole a base.

Callison scored the Phillies' fourth run on Clay Dalrymple's short sacrifice fly.

The Phils' first run was scored by Ruben Amaro on Tony Gonzalez' single.

COMPROMISE VOTE TO BE TAKEN TODAY

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate votes today on a legislative reapportionment compromise proposal.

Its acceptance would move the $3.3-billion foreign aid bill a step closer to passage and speed up the timetable for adjournment of Congress.

A battle over a proposal by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen — to force a delay of a year or more to Supreme Court-ordered reapportionment of seats in both houses of state legislatures on a population basis — has tied up the foreign aid bill for several weeks.

Dirksen offered the proposal as a rider to the foreign aid bill on the theory that President Johnson would not veto that measure. Dirksen's purpose is to gain time until Congress can submit and the states ratify a constitutional amendment nullifying the Supreme Court decision.

In an effort to break the stalemate, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, Johnson's vice presidential running mate, has moved into the picture by backing a "sense of the Congress" compromise first advanced by Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., and a group of senators supporting the Supreme Court decision have been conducting a talkathon against the Dirksen rider to prevent its adoption.

Up until Monday, the group was holding out against the "sense of the Congress" substitute until its sponsors agreed to accept modifying language the liberals proposed.

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — George Norgan, 79, multimillionaire Canadian and a central figure in a $17-million income tax suit, died Sunday. His holdings in breweries, distilleries and real estate were estimated at $25 million. He and nine others were charged in 1954 by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service with having evaded $17 million in U.S. income taxes through the sale of Canadian whisky in the United States.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
CLOCK OF THE WALK. Ob-

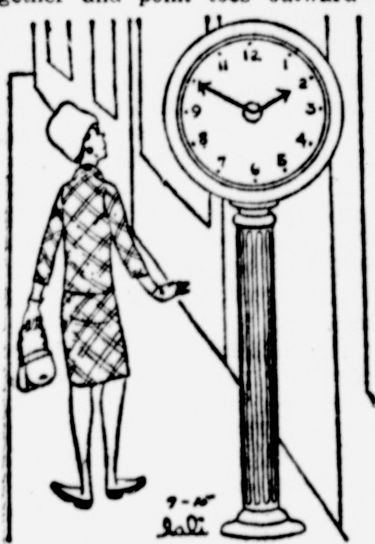

serve how many women waddle when they walk. Some real slimmies at that!

Although waddling is associated with gross overweight, it is only an indirect cause. The trouble is not in the hips but in the feet. If a woman walks with her toes pointed outward—at 10 minutes to two—she's bound to lumber.

Unfortunately many waddlers are unaware of this slip from grace. And what a pity, for you can never correct a fault until you detect it. Detection here is simple. It's a case where your best friend will tell you, if you ask her to watch you go through your paces.

Correction takes time and work. But results are worth the price. Once your toes learn the knack of pointing straight ahead—to 12 o'clock high—you sail along like a graceful bird. Too, your feet feel happier and your legs take on prettier contours.

Here's the corrective routine: Stand without shoes on a carpeted surface. Place heels together and point toes outward—to quarter of three. Slowly pull feet together and, as you do, roll your weight from heels to toes. Then take eight steps with toes pointed straight ahead.

That's the graceful, natural action, and the routine will help make a habit of it. It will, that is, if you work five minutes daily for at least two months.

Here's an Americanized version of the Mexican cuisine specialty, Enchiladas. The thin, fried corn cakes wrapped round the frankfurters are prepared from a Homemade Corn Bread Mix. Make it up for practically pennies and store it in your refrigerator ready for corn bread squares and sticks.

Want to widen your family's culinary horizon? Then look to our great southwest and to Mexico. Mexican cuisine offers a wide and wonderful array of "hot" food specialties.

Here's an Americanized version of the enchilada. Enchiladas are tortillas (thin corn cakes) fried lightly, stuffed and rolled. Tortilla is the bread of old Mexico.

These enchiladas become Rio Grande Hot Dogs—a milder dish. Included is the version of the tortilla to make with your own penny-wise Homemade Corn Bread Mix.

To make corn bread from this mix add enough milk to one egg to make one cup liquid. Add liquid to two cups mix. Stir until smooth. Pour into a greased eight or nine-inch square pan. Bake at 425° F. 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown.

Acquires Control Of Summer Theater

NEW HOPE, Pa. (AP) — Director Walter Perner Jr., has acquired controlling interest in the 25-year-old Bucks County Playhouse.

Perner, 30, previously the summer theater's assistant managing director, purchased the interest Monday from outgoing managing director Michael Ellis.

Perner, who will become managing director next May 1, said there will be no changes in the operation of the playhouse. He said Ellis will continue his association by serving as chairman of the board of directors.

10 frankfurters
2 cups Homemade Corn Bread Mix
2 teaspoons chili powder
1 egg
1 milk
3 cups shredded cheddar cheese
1 cup catchup or chili sauce
½ cup finely chopped onion
Combine Homemade Corn Bread Mix and ½ teaspoon chili powder.

Beat egg and add milk to make ¼ cups. Add liquid mixture to dry ingredients. Stir until dry ingredients are moistened. Bake as corn meal cakes on hot, lightly greased griddle, using about ¼ cup batter for each cake. Cook until bubbles form on top side and edges become slightly dry. Turn and cook on second side. Keep warm. Combine two cups of the cheese, catchup or chili sauce, onion and remaining chili powder. Mix well. Spread filling on corn

PENNSYLVANIA REGISTRATION BOOKS CLOSED

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The registration books were closed in Pennsylvania on Monday but not before thousands of citizens of the Commonwealth had entered their names as potential voters in the Nov. 3 general election.

Albert E. Eberman, deputy secretary of the Commonwealth, said final registration figures probably would not be received in Harrisburg until 10 days before the election. He said county election boards, however, were authorized to release unofficial figures at any time.

Leaders of both major parties were cautious about estimating the number of new registrations they could claim. Both the Republicans and the Democrats had striven to sign up voters whom they might count on to support their candidates at the polls.

MORSE HAPPY
Democratic State Chairman

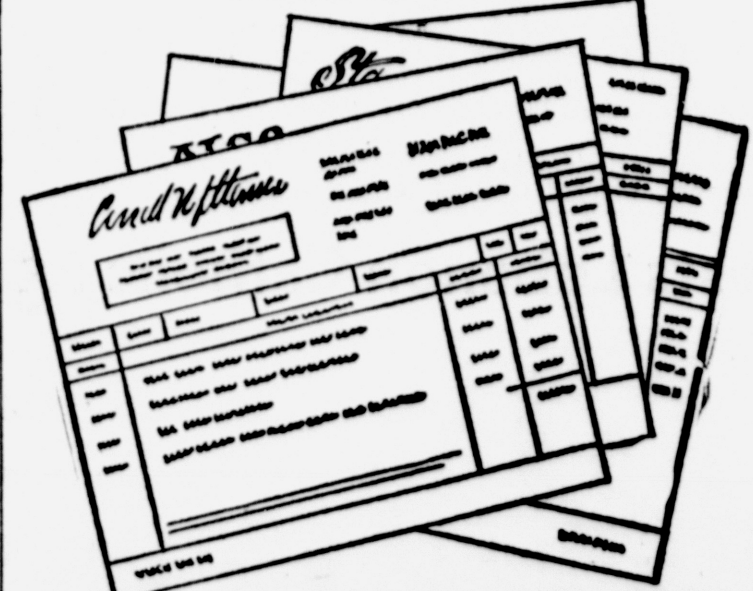

Otis B. Morse expressed optimism that his party had out-registered the GOP. He said a spot check last week of Cameron and Tioga counties, where the Republicans hold big majorities in registration, showed that Democrats were leading in new registrations 1½ to 1.

Republican State Chairman Craig Truax said his party had established a goal of 100,000 new registrations for the 1964 election. He did not say, however, if he felt the goal had been met.

Many county election boards across the state held their registration books open into the night to give persons every opportunity to sign up for the election. In most counties traveling registrars have gone into shopping centers, fire houses and various other spots to register those voters who might not be able to come to the courthouse.

ROBBERY AND TIP
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Cab driver Charles Blasko, 57, picked up two men Monday and at their direction drove to a destination several blocks away. There one of the men pointed a pistol at him and took $17. Before fleeing the men tossed him $1.50—90 cents for the meter reading and a 60-cent tip.

WHEN YOU NEED MONEY TO PAY YOUR BILLS Remember...

With THRIFT in Town You Have a Friend Around

One of the biggest problems in the family budget is all the bills that have piled up. And they all seem to fall due at the same time. The easiest way to pay them is with a bill consolidation loan from your nearby Thrift office. Borrow what you need and pay it back in monthly payments "tailored" to your budget.

At Thrift, a bill consolidation loan or any loan is a private matter. Our interest rates comply with the State of Pennsylvania's Small Loan Act (loans up to $600), and the Pennsylvania Consumer Discount Company Act (loans of $601 to $3500).

FOREIGN FIRM OPENS PLANT IN HAZLETON

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP) — One of the newest industries to be located here through joint federal, state and local efforts will be dedicated Friday.

The plant is that of the Sekisui Plastic Corp., the first foreign plant to be announced after the late President John F. Kennedy's invitation to foreign capital to invest in the United States.

The parent firm is Sekisui Chemical Co. Ltd., of Japan. The plant now employs 40, including a dozen Japanese experts. Eventually it plans to employ up to 100 with an annual payroll of $400,000.

Sekisui brought in about $900,000 worth of machinery and equipment and supplied the technicians and executives. The rest of the money, which went for the building and site, was supplied by the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority, the U.S. Area Redevelopment Authority and the Hazleton organization, CANDO, which stands for Community - Area New Development Organizations, Inc.

CANDO was formed in 1956 and has helped bring to Hazleton industries with payrolls totaling $15 million.

Hiromitsu Sumiyoshi, a Sekisui vice president, has been in Hazleton about a year as plant manager. His family is with him.

Sitkoff Resigns As Accounts Director

HARRISBURG (AP) — Theodore Sitkoff of Harrisburg will step down Wednesday from his $13,979-a-year post of director of the bureau of accounts in the state Office of Administration.

His assistant, Hubert E. Simpson will serve as acting director, John W. Ingram, secretary of administration, said Monday in announcing Sitkoff's resignation.

Sitkoff, who has held his present post since 1961, will join the Public Administration Service in Chicago, Ingram said.

Faces 12 Years On Manslaughter Count

LEBANON, Pa. (AP)—Elena Urrutia, 26, of Lebanon, faces a maximum sentence of 12 years imprisonment after pleading guilty of a charge of voluntary manslaughter.

Miss Urrutia entered the plea Monday after the Lebanon County grand jury reduced the charge from murder. She had been accused of fatally stabbing Ramon Martinez, 45, of Lebanon last June 13.

Pigeon Shooting Is Pigeon-Holed

CRANFORD, N.J. (AP) — If you sign a formal complaint against a pigeon in this township the police will go out and shoot him, but not before.

The police had planned an all-out shooting war against the birds, but pigeon-holed this approach because letters and telephone calls flowed in from pro-

BANKS WARNED ON BURGLARIES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania banks and other financial institutions are being warned by the state Banking Department to take greater precautions against robberies, burglaries and embezzlement.

G. Allen Patterson, secretary of banking, said in a letter to the institutions Monday that holdups and burglaries involving banks have increased 141 per cent in the United States since 1955.

Patterson said that at the request of U. S. Dist. Judge Wallace S. Gourley of Pittsburgh, he sent to the banks a report published by the U. S. House Committee on Government Operations.

"I trust you and your associates will take time to study the report and it is our sincere hope that you will adopt and place into effect, as soon as possible, such recommendations of the committee that apply to your institution," Patterson wrote.

testing bird lovers. Now, says Public Safety Commissioner Edward Gill, the police will ask residents to sign a formal complaint against the pigeons, who have been held responsible by homeowners for extensive property damage.

Along with the complaint, Gill says, the citizens must sign a release absolving the municipality from any damages incurred during the shooting.

"THE ROGUES" CALLED TONIC FOR SUNDAY TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "The Rogues" arrived Sunday night, courtesy of NBC, and if the first show of this new television series is typical, this season's Sunday night schedules have received a needed tonic.

The show was sheer romantic nonsense, played for fun and happily reminiscent of those sleek, amusing films starring William Powell and Cary Grant a few years back.

In the premiere episode, David Niven, who can play an urbane international swindler with the best of them, smoothly extracted a million dollars from an unscrupulous shipping magnate. Then he turned it over promptly to the father of a beautiful lady in distress who had been bankrupted by the shipping czar.

"GOOD" CROOKS

What the guardians of television's morals will make of the series' basic format, heaven knows. Niven and his costars, Charles Boyer and Gig Young, will play charming, well-dressed, wryly humorous crooks who really are good guys at heart. Obviously, in this setting, crime will have to pay — you can't haul the heroes off to jail at the end of every episode.

It was all good fun and it was nice, at long last, to see a comedy-drama inhabited by attractive, well-adjusted well-dressed people in an old time lavish Monte Carlo setting.

ABC took an hour Sunday night to publicize its new fall schedule in the extremely thin disguise of an entertainment special. They loaded in film clips, movie trailers and lots of dull talk about the show. In between there were brief periods of singing and dancing — mostly by stars who do something else for a living.

QUIZ IS GONE

"The Miss America Pageant" on CBS Saturday night proved, as usual, to be intriguing and exhausting for home viewers. There was the dreary, dragged out entertainment, the heavy-handed humor and the full descriptions of the contest and the girls.

The interest is in looking at the girls and the fun is in being the judge. It's a show impossi-

Nixon To Campaign In Goldwater Behalf

NEW YORK (AP) — On or about Oct. 1 former Vice President Richard M. Nixon will start an intensive, five-week campaign tour in behalf of Barry Goldwater, Republican presidential nominee.

"We've been swamped with invitations for Mr. Nixon and we're still trying to work out a schedule," a spokesman reported over the weekend.

HELLAM FIRE LOSS $400,000

YORK, Pa. (AP) — Damage was estimated at $400,000 today in a fire which destroyed the nearby Hellam Hosiery Co. and forced several families to evacuate their homes.

Firemen from seven companies battled the flames for hours Saturday before bringing them under control. One firefighter suffered severe cuts when he stepped on a nail while another was overcome by smoke.

Hundreds of sewing machines and weaving looms and a heavy inventory of hosiery and other apparel were destroyed in the blaze at the one-story block and brick structure.

The fire also damaged three garages and a 2½-story home adjacent to the building.

Mrs. Genevieve Maust and her children were evacuated from the adjoining home and to refuge in a vacant apartment. The James Moore family across the street also was forced to flee because of smoke.

The company, owned by Harry M. Gaubert and Francis J. Mann, both of York, employs between 40 and 50 workers, mostly women.

Over 500,000,000 books were printed and bound last year by the nations printers and publishers.

able to turn off once you start watching.

It seemed to this veteran Miss America-watcher that the finalists this year showed much more professional talent than in other Septembers. An enormous improvement was the abolition of that terrible final quiz period in favor of a less formal interview. It would be even better if they skipped the whole thing. In fact it would be great if they would chop it into a 60-minute show.

3 FIREMEN ARE KILLED WHEN TRUCK UPSETS

FINLEYVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A fire truck going to a fire early Sunday near this Washington County community overturned, fatally injuring three firemen and injuring six others. Authorities said about 13 men were aboard the truck when it rounded a curve, overturned and burst into flames on a rural road in Peters Twp.

The fatal victims were John Stark, Arvin Kegel, 32, and Philip Simmons, 54, all of Finleyville and members of the Finleyville Volunteer Fire Department.

Stark was pronounced dead at Monongahela Hospital in Monongahela; Kegel died in St. Clair Memorial Hospital near Pittsburgh shortly after the mishap and Simmons died today in Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh.

Five of the injured were listed in critical condition at various hospitals.

The fire scorched several nearby homes, but the 12 fire companies on the scene were able to prevent any extensive spreading of the flames.

The cause of the fire was not determined immediately. A resident living nearby who turned in the alarm told police he heard what sounded like two minor blasts and a major explosion.

No official damage estimate was available.

The warehouse was formerly owned by Champion Stores. The identity of the current owner was not learned immediately.

DIES OF INJURIES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Miss Patricia Anne Cernugle, 20, of nearby Steelton died at Harrisburg Hospital Saturday, four days after being struck by a car along Interstate 83 in Lemoyne.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli Prime Minister Levi Eshkol, 69, underwent an operation for a cataract of the right eye at Hadassah Hospital today. His condition was described in a hospital bulletin as satisfactory.

REDS SAY DOPE HELPING CHINA

MOSCOW (AP) — The Kremlin has accused Red China of making huge profits from growing and smuggling dope.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, said the Chinese government is earning $500 million annually from narcotics.

It claimed Red China used the profits for "anti-Soviet propaganda or to subsidize the puppets of the Peking splitters."

Pravda quoted Tsusai Sugawara, chairman of Japan's National Committee for the Struggle Against Drug Addiction, as saying China is the world's largest producer of opium poppies and that most of the drug exports are "shipped to Southeast Asia and large consignments also reach the United States."

REDS LOSE IN SAN MARINO

SAN MARINO (AP) — Communist-Socialist strength dwindled still further today in the world's oldest and tiniest republic as the Christian Democrats and the Democratic Socialists won another solid election victory.

The election, in which women voted for the first time, was for the 60-member Grand Council, the parliament for the mountaintop country of 15,000 people in northeast Italy.

The Christian Democrats and the Democratic Socialists won 39 seats, as compared to 36 during the last election in 1959. The Communist-Socialist alliance got 20, losing four.

One seat went to the Movement for Constitutional Liberty, a new party.

The Democratic National Committee will pay for the trip, similar to one Mrs. Johnson took with her husband when he ran for vice president in 1960.

Daughters Lynda Bird, 20, and Luci Baines, 17, will accompany their mother on part of the trip. School classes will prevent them from going the whole way.

GARBAGE MAN ARCHEOLOGIST

BLETCHLEY, England (AP) — Dick Griffiths dumps garbage on the municipal rubbish heap during the day and at night goes back there to dig for archeological treasure.

Dick is a dustman — British for garbage collector — for the Bletchley Urban Council. He's also a keen amateur archaeologist.

He has made several discoveries in the garbage dump, which has the poetic name of Saffron Gardens.

A display case in the town library is filled with Griffiths' findings — pottery dating back 2,000 years, an ancient skeleton and the like.

Actually, Saffron Gardens only recently became a rubbish dump. The others got filled up. In daytime hours Dick collects his garbage and like dustmen empties his gatherings on Saffron Gardens — knowing full well that in the evening he must go back there for his diggings.

"The council has now almost totally destroyed the site," said Dick ruefully, "but I shall fight to the end. The rubbish is driving me back further and further and at times it seems hopeless. But what can I do? I have a wife and three children and I have to do my job."

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

THE TOM'S CREEK FAMILY OF AGNEWS

The historical and genealogical data pertaining to the collateral family of the Agnews of Tom's Creek is continued at this time. There can be no possible doubt that James (1) and Samuel (1) Agnew came to the "far western frontier" from Donegal, Lancaster County, in first half of the eighteenth century. James (1) Agnew is buried in a well-marked grave at Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian churchyard while Samuel (1) is interred in a grave that is now unmarked in the Upper Marsh Creek burial ground — now more commonly known as Black's Graveyard.

James (3) Agnew, the son of Samuel (1) Agnew, is buried at churchyard. Apparently his wife, Martha Agnew, is buried beside him along with other members of his family, but all graves with the exception of that of the husband and father are now unmarked.

James (2) and Martha Agnew were the parents of at least six children — namely — Jane (Agnew) McCreary, a daughter (name unknown) who married into the Hunter family, James Agnew II, John (3) Agnew, Andrew (3) Agnew and David (3) Agnew. Nothing is known, at the present time pertaining to these branches of Tom's Creek Agnew family.

In searching among the old records, both church and civil, the following notes on the Agnew family has been unearthed:

1. Records of the Rev. Dr. William Paxton —

"Married, March 23, 1809, David Wilson Jr., to Martha Agnew, the daughter of James Agnew (II), both of Adams County, Pennsylvania."

Note:—This branch of the Agnew family, in the third generation, has been fully covered in previous columns.

2. Rev. Alexander Dobbin's Records —

"Married, July 17, 1792, William Baldrige to Rebecca Agnew, both of Hamilton's Bann, York (now Adams) County."

Note — Rebecca Agnew, the daughter of James (2) Agnew and his wife, Mary (Ramsey) Agnew, who was married to the Rev. James Baldrige, a Presbyterian minister. Rebecca (Agnew) Baldrige died in 1817 in Adams County, Ohio.

3. Records of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin —

"Married, December 3, 1799, Alexander Caldwell to Dolly Agnew, both of Hamilton's Bann, York (now Adams) County."

Note:—Dolly (or Polly) Agnew was a daughter of James (2) and Mary (Ramsey) Agnew, who married Alexander Caldwell. She is mentioned in the wills of both her father and mother.

3. Records of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin —

"Married, September 3, 1805, Samuel Reed to Mary Agnew, both of Cumberland Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania."

Note:—This branch of the Agnew family, of the Marsh Creek Settlement, has been fully documented in previous columns.

Before concluding the notes on the Agnew family it might be well to mention other lines of that clan buried at the Tom's Creek Presbyterian Churchyard —

15. "In memory of — William McCreary — Died October 29, 1839 — aged 19 years and — 10 months."

Note:—It will be remembered that Jane Agnew, the daughter of James (2) and Martha Agnew, was intermarried with James McCreary. This is probably a grandson, in the fourth generation, of the Agnew family.

Another daughter of James (2) and Martha Agnew, married into the Hunter family. Among the marked Hunter family graves in Tom's Creek graveyard are the following:—

16. "In memory of — Susanna Mary Hunter — Died March 11th, 1898 — Aged 70 years, 5 months and — 16 days."

17. "In memory of — Elizabeth Hunter — Died August 15th, 1844 — In her 88th year."

18. "In memory of — William Hunter — Died August 16, 1822 — Aged 73 years."

This concludes, for the time being at least, the date on the Agnew family and its many branches.

Continuing the study of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Churchyard the next family, with a rather large burial plot, is the Brandwoods. All of the graves here appear to be well

Youth Killed In Two-Car Collision

WAVERLY, N. Y. (AP)—Darwin E. Bennett, 22, of South Waverly, Pa., was killed Monday in the collision of two automobiles at an intersection of Route 17 and a rural road near this village on the New York-Pennsylvania line.

Hugh Lanford, 37, of Athens, R.D., Pa., was taken to Tioga General Hospital here in critical condition. Two other men, Robert West, 22, of Waverly, and Paul Eiklor, 35, of Smithboro, also were hospitalized.

BLAZE LEAVES SHIP HELPLESS

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—The freighter Globe Explorer was left helpless within minutes after a flash fire broke out Friday in its engine room, members of the crew said after their arrival in this port Sunday night.

The ship's generator failed, hampering efforts to check the blaze. Crew members said it started when diesel oil overflowed and ignited by coming in contact with a hot steam line.

"It was just like a flash," said Engineer Mate Carl Biscup of Chester, Pa. Biscup was in the engine room when the fire started.

"We were going to hook up hose," he said. "Then the generator kicked out, knocking out all power on the ship."

Biscup said he knew then "we were finished."

Biscup and other members of the crew said good discipline paid off when it came time to leave the blazing vessel. None of the men suffered serious injury.

"There was no panic," said Stanley Zibroski of Philadelphia, marked and the husband and father was a soldier in the War the American revolution. The inscription from the marker at his grave reads as follows:—

1. "In memory of — Andrew Brandwood — who was born May 1st, 1730 — in the City of Dublin and — Parish of St. Ann's — Died November 21st, 1798."

2. "In memory of — Sarah Brandwood — Wife of Andrew Brandwood — Died May 13th, 1811 — Aged 79 years. Also — In memory of — James Brandwood — Died August 6th, 1777 — Aged 6 years."

Just when Andrew Brandwood, soldier of the American Revolution, came to this country from Ireland is not definitely known. It must have been at a comparatively young age, however, for he was married to Sarah Gibson, in the Cumberland Valley, Pennsylvania, on March 31st, 1758, by the Rev. John Cuthbertson, of the Covenantor Presbyterian Church.

Apparently Andrew Brandwood moved to the Marsh Creek Settlement shortly before or just after his marriage to Sarah Gibson in 1758. All of his children were born in this locality — the records of the Rev. Cuthbertson are sure proof of that. He (the Rev. Cuthbertson) lists the functions of his "holy office," in regards to the Brandwood family, on his various visits to the "Marsh Creek Society" as follows:

1. "September 9th, 1768 — baptized Elizabeth Brandwood, daughter of Andrew Brandwood."

2. March 27th, 1770 — baptized Isobel Brandwood, daughter of Andrew Brandwood."

3. "April 12th, 1772, baptized James Brandwood, son of Andrew Brandwood."

The notes on the Brandwood family, of the Marsh Creek Settlement, will be continued in this column next week.

STEWART CAN BE FUSSY MAN ABOUT THE HAT

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — James Stewart is not a fussy man, but there are times when he wants his way.

Right now he is content. He is back at Universal, where he has filmed a number of successful outdoor movies dating back to "Destry Rides Again" (1939).

This time he is making a Civil War picture called "Shenandoah," and one of the reasons for his contentment is that he once again has the hat. Not just a hat — The hat.

SET A PATTERN

The hat dates back to "Winchester 73," which he made 15 years ago as part of a historic two-picture deal. Universal offered to give him 50 per cent of the profits in a contract that was to set the pattern for the future; until then, stars were merely paid salaries.

Stewart's pact was primarily for "Harvey," which netted him no profit, with "Winchester 73" thrown in the bargain. His returns from the western were in the millions.

It happened that on "Winchester 73," he found a hat and "We all knew what to do." Just that morning, less than five hours before the fire, Captain Carl Jurgensen had ordered a fire drill.

a pair of chaps that felt good to him. He next was going to make a western for MGM, "Naked Spur," and he wanted to use them again.

DUPLICATES SCORND

Here's how he tells the story: "I went over to MGM and told them about the hat and chaps I would like to get from Universal. 'But we never borrow anything from other studios,' they told me. 'We make our own things.'"

"I told them, 'Yes, but I want to use the same hat and chaps, so why don't you break your rule for once?' They said they would look into it."

"They borrowed the hat and chaps from Universal and made exact duplicates and returned the originals to Universal. They showed me what they had done. 'That's very nice,' I said. 'They look just like the real ones, but they're not the real ones. And I want to wear the real ones in the picture.'"

CHANGED POLICY

"I was so firm that they decided to change the policy for once. But now Universal said, 'If you're going to be way about it, we won't lend you the hat and chaps.'"

"So I went up to the location, but I wasn't happy. I sat in my hotel room and I told them I wasn't making a move until I got that hat and chaps. They sent up Billy Grady, figuring he was a friend of mine and could reason with me."

"I told Billy, 'Nuts to you, too! I'm not working!' I said maybe if MGM asked nicely, Universal would agree to the loan. MGM did and Universal did, and I did the picture."

WOULD BOOST PENNA. BEAUTY

POTATO CITY, Pa. (AP) — Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate, says the time has come to start tapping the beauty of the vast forest empire in Northern Pennsylvania.

"It can become a vast, new vacationland, a 'Little Yellowstone' in the East," Miss Blatt declared Saturday, urging the state and federal government to join in development of the area.

Speaking at the annual Potter County ox roast here, Miss Blatt outlined the following proposals which she feels would create new jobs and new prosperity in the area:

—Construction of several scenic access highways from the Keystone Shortway into the heart of the forest lands, shunting expressway pleasure traffic into Pennsylvania's under-developed areas.

—Development of new lakes and water areas for fishing and recreation.

—Development of the necessary accommodations such as restaurants and commercial recreation sites to serve the millions of people who would invade such a vacationland.

—Establishment of youth conservation camps under President Johnson's new war on poverty program.

Licorice grows wild along roadsides of Aleppo, Syria's largest city. The dried roots of the perennial plant are processed into extracts for the black candy sticks and for industrial uses.

Resume Ferry Runs On Delaware Bay

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Service was scheduled to resume today on the Cape May-Lewes ferry across Delaware Bay with newly hired captains commanding the ships.

Nolan Chandler, ferry manager, said Sunday night he had hired new captains to replace those who struck with other crewmen for higher pay last Aug. 28.

Chandler said he was trying to assemble crews, but did not say how many new captains had been hired.

The New Jersey Superior Court has issued an injunction against the International Organization of Masters, Mates and Pilots ordering the men back to work, but so far it has had no effect.

FRIDINGER FAMILY REUNION

The annual family picnic of the Fridinger family was held at the Recreation Park on September 6. There were 43 members of the family and five invited guests present. The afternoon was spent playing games and a picnic-style supper was served.

Officers for the year were elected as follows: President, Edgar Shelleman; vice president, Charles Fridinger; secretary, Dorothy Caskey, and treasurer, Donald Mowen Jr.

Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mowen and children, Donald Jr. and Beverly; Williamsport, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fridinger and children, Junior, Donald, Richard and Beverly of Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. George Henry and children, George and Barbara of Dillsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Mock and

SEARCH FOR MISSING MAN

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Several hundred searchers hunted through the shrubbery and timber Sunday searching for a Florida man who has disappeared from his vacation cottage at nearby Mount Airy.

Police said the missing man is Charles P. McCulley, 74, of Deland, Fla., who arrived here Sept. 7 to attend a lawn bowling tournament.

Apparently McCulley has not been seen in the area since that day, his wife, and step-son, John H. Floey of Willingboro, N. J., discovered when they came to join him Sunday.

Although a massive search was underway in the Pocono Mountains near Mount Airy where he had rented a cabin, police said they had not discounted the possibility he may have decided to return to his Florida home and had not contacted his wife and stepson.

children, Darla and Debra, Wormleysburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Toomey and children, Judith and Lana, of Mt. Wolf. Guests included Carolyn Bennett and her brother, Michael, Capron, Va.

Coming September 23—three different new Ramblers THE SENSIBLE SPECTACULARS 65's most sweeping changes—in size—in style—in power

We can tell you this about the new automobiles coming to market for 1965:

No other new cars will be more dramatically changed, or better attuned to the new motorizing age, than the '65 Ramblers.

These Ramblers are changed, but not for the sake of change.

They are changed to meet today's changing tastes, changing traffic, changing turnpike demands, changing car uses.

To meet the challenge of these changes, we designed three different kinds of Ramblers, in three different sizes, on three different wheelbases, in three different price ranges.

We powered these Ramblers with seven spectacular engines, Sixes and V-8s, including Torque Command, world's most advanced engine. Boosts both power and economy.

We put new brawn and heft into these Ramblers, new space inside, yet kept the famed easy handling, parking, maneuverability.

We added new features to the long list of extra-value features you get at no extra cost—added new sportiness and action—added new glamour models, including dazzling new convertibles in Ambassador and Classic.

These new 1965 Ramblers you will see next week are Ramblers through and through—the most sensible Ramblers we have ever built. But they are also the most spectacular Ramblers in history—spectacular in looks, size, beauty, performance.

Thus, they named themselves. They are The Sensible Spectaculars. No other words describe them better, more honestly.

When you see the new Ramblers on Wednesday, September 23—sit in them, drive them—you will understand the honesty of the name—The Sensible Spectaculars.

We invite you to see the 1965 Ramblers yourself—at your Rambler dealer, next week. American Motors—Dedicated to Excellence

HOLSTEINS TO COMPETE FOR BLUE RIBBONS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's finest Holsteins competed for blue ribbons today at this state's first All-American dairy show.

On the eve of the judging, the Pennsylvania Holstein Association held a sale at which 44 animals were auctioned at an average of $744 a head.

The highest price paid for a single animal was $1,375 for a five-year-old cow, "Al Roburke Peppy." The buyer was H. J. Szold of Washingtonville, N.Y. Three other Holsteins sold for more than $1,000 apiece.

Twelve grand champions were named Monday as the show opened. All were in the Pennsylvania junior division, with six each in 4-H and Future Farmers of America sections.

The 4-H champions, by breeds: Ayrshire, owned by R. Edwin Harnish, Christiana R.D. 1; Brown Swiss, H. Philip Kennedy, Butler R.D. 6; Guernsey, Birch Snider, New Enterprise R.D. 1; Holstein, Averill L. Royer, Lancaster; Jersey, Jay Marvin Herr, Holtwood R.D. 1; Milking Shorthorn, Larry Landis, Hamburg.

FFA CHAMPIONS

The FFA champions, by breeds: Ayrshire, owned by R. Edwin Harnish, Christiana R.D. 1; Brown Swiss, H. Philip Kennedy, Butler R.D. 6; Guernsey, Birch Snider, New Enterprise R.D. 1; Holstein, Averill L. Royer, Lancaster; Jersey, Jay Marvin Herr, Holtwood R.D. 1; Milking Shorthorn, Larry Landis, Hamburg.

Cattle from 16 states and Canada will compete for top honors Wednesday and Thursday in the All-American judging.

TWO MEDICAL GROUPS SUED

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Medical Society and the Blue Shield Medical Service Association are named as codefendants in a series of suits filed by the Pennsylvania Podiatry Association.

The complaints, filed Monday in Dauphin County Court, charged that the two groups conspired to bar podiatrists from Blue Shield payments. The state law creating Blue Shield also was challenged for attempting to exclude podiatrists and their patients from coverage.

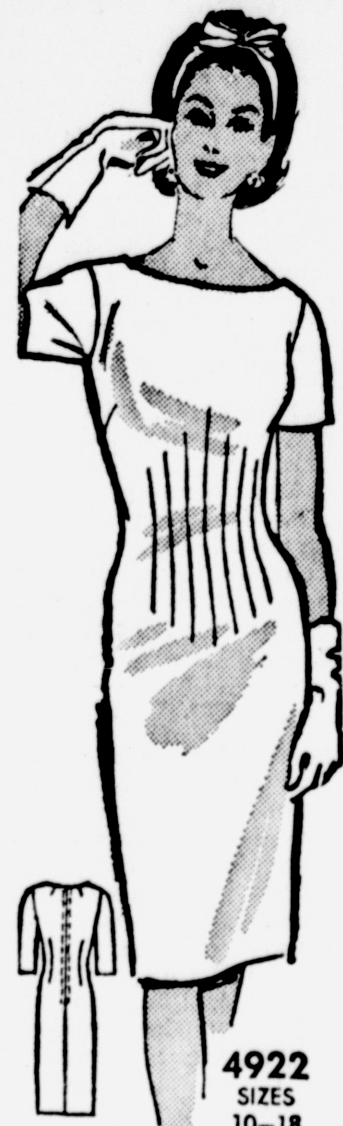

Attorney S. Regen Ginsburg, who filed the complaints, said Blue Shield has denied payments for podiatrists' services although they are licensed by the state to treat 50 maladies and defects of the feet covered by Blue Shield.

FEAR SPREAD

The defendants are making Pennsylvania an "island of restriction" since Blue Shield plans in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia provide coverage for podiatrists' services, Ginsburg said.

Dr. I. Daniel Greenfield, president of the podiatry association, said, "Willful and selfish actions of Blue Shield and organized medicine have defamed podiatry and cost practitioners, collectively, millions of dollars."

2 HURRICANES STILL ACTIVE

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricanes Gladys and Ethel still flicked on Weather Bureau radar screens today, but their older sister Dora, killer of at least seven persons, no longer exists.

Gladys stirred the tropical Atlantic with 90-mile winds 750 miles east-northeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico. She was about 1,750 miles east-southeast of Miami.

Forecasters predicted Gladys would continue to move west-northwest at 16 m.p.h. for the next 24 hours and probably would gradually increase in intensity.

Ethel, centered about 325 miles east-southeast of Cape Race, Newfoundland, spun at 30 m.p.h. toward the northeast packing winds of 85 m.p.h. Weathermen said she probably would lose her hurricane characteristics in the cold

TO SEEK MORE WORK AT NAVY YARD IN STATE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mayor James H. J. Tate leads a delegation of shipyard workers today to a meeting with Navy Secretary Paul Nitze to discuss the future of the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

The group plans to seek more work for the yard with its 8,500 civilian employees.

The session, however, ran into complications before it even started when published reports — denied by the Pentagon — said a study of naval shipyards recommends closing those at Philadelphia and Brooklyn.

ASKS EXPLANATION

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., asked the Pentagon for an explanation of the reports and called on President Johnson to make the study public — if one actually exists.

In a Senate speech Monday, Javits quoted the published reports as saying there is no classified material in the Pentagon shipyard study yet it has been marked confidential and won't be made public until after the November election.

Failure to make the study public — if it does exist — would "be blatantly playing politics with our defense effort," Javits added.

ASKS RETURN

Meanwhile, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., said he was assured by the Defense Department that "there is no truth whatever" to the published reports.

The Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce last Saturday urged Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to retain the Philadelphia yard because of its "superiority over virtually every other naval shipyard on the East coast."

Some members of Congress were advised last December that the Boston, Philadelphia and San Francisco yards would be closed. No mention was made of them, however, in a subsequent announcement of base closings by the Pentagon.

Begin Yom Kippur At Sundown Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Yom Kippur, the Jewish Day of Atonement, begins at sundown today. It is Judaism's most sacred time, ending the 10 high holy days which began with the new year.

The faithful are expected to abstain from food and drink and to spend all day at a synagogue in prayer and self-examination. The observance ends at sundown Wednesday.

Widow, 82, Is Duped In Confidence Game

READING, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Laura R. Hinnerst, an 82-year-old widow, told the police Monday she had been duped out of her $6,000 life savings.

Mrs. Hinnerst told police two women approached her and said they would share the money with her if she would put up $6,000 of her own as "good faith" money. She said they took her money but never returned.

Scott's Record For Pa. Attacked

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, says U. S. Sen. Hugh Scott doesn't do enough for Pennsylvania to rate re-election.

"He doesn't know enough and doesn't do enough for Pennsylvania to rate re-election," she said Monday of the incumbent Republican.

Miss Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, was talking at a rally here opening Democratic campaign headquarters in Allegheny County.

"What has he done for Allegheny County or Pittsburgh? He has voted against legislation that would help, and is needed, in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia," she said.

TO EXPEDITE RAIL MERGER

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Pennsylvania cleared the way Monday for the merger of three railroads by announcing it will divest itself of its stock in two of the lines.

Stuart T. Saunders, chairman of the board of the Pennsylvania, said the total sum of the stock involved is $452,000,000 at current prices.

The Pennsylvania will dispose of its almost 100 per cent stock ownership in the Wabash Railroad and its stock in the Norfolk and Western Railroad.

Merger of the two railroads with the Nickel Plate Railroad was approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission July 13 providing the Pennsylvania divested itself of its holdings in the railroads. Under the ICC requirement, the Pennsylvania has 10 years from the date of the merger to divest itself of stock in the N. & W.

"We would not take this crucial step without complete confidence that the Pennsylvania-New York Central merger will be authorized in due course," Saunders said.

BRITAIN WILL VOTE OCT. 15

By COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP) — Britain's general election campaign moved into high gear today as Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home prepared to announce the voting date after an audience with Queen Elizabeth II.

The prime minister's supporters said he would announce that the election of a new House of Commons will be Oct. 15.

Douglas-Home flew Monday night to Balmoral Castle, in Scotland, to ask the queen to dissolve Parliament. Parliament already is in recess and will not meet again before the election.

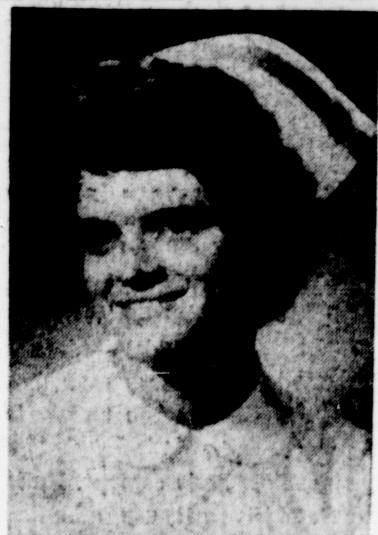

Campaigning already is under way. Douglas-Home flew to Balmoral after a whistle-stop tour of Kent. In eight speeches he stressed his Conservative Party's determination that Britain should keep an independent nuclear deterrent.

Harold Wilson, leader of the opposition Labor party, speaking in Lancashire, thumped away at the rise in land prices.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Lois Lilley Howe, the first woman to receive an architecture degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, died Sunday. She would have been 100 years old Sept. 25. She was born in Cambridge and graduated from MIT in 1890.

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. Frank Luther Mott, 78, wife of the dean emeritus of the University of Missouri School of Journalism, died Sunday. A native of Mt. Airy, Iowa, Mrs. Mott was graduated from Simpson College and was on the school's faculty from 1926 through 1928.

Wisconsin produces more than 100 varieties of cheese.

Miss Wanda McFeaters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McFeaters, Gettysburg R. 3, graduated from the Chambersburg Practical Nursing School at exercises held at the South Junior High School, Chambersburg, Friday evening. She is a graduate of Gettysburg High School with the class of 1963. Miss McFeaters began practical nursing in the medical and surgical department of the Warner Hospital today. While at the Chambersburg school she was chairman of the yearbook committee, the first yearbook to be published by the school.

CLAIM CIVIL RIGHTS BEING DISCREDITED

HARRISBURG (AP)—Efforts are being made to discredit the civil rights movement by equating riots with nonviolent demonstrations, says the United Presbyterian Synod of Pennsylvania.

"Riots and demonstrations are not the same," declared Dr. Leroy Scott of Pittsburgh in a statement Monday. "They stem from different motives and bear different fruit."

Patrick, newly-elected chairman of the synod's commission on religion and race, charged that labels of "lawless" and "criminal" are being put on "responsible men and women who have chosen to witness to our American social ills by engaging in peaceful civil disobedience."

"AGENTS OF DISTRUST"

"Such labels," he said, "are shallow, false and libelous. These attempts are most alarming. They indicate a serious disregard for the great social forces at work in America. They serve as agents of distrust and injustice. They condemn an oppressed people while vindicating the oppressor. They represent a tendency toward irresponsible speech which could trigger irresponsible action."

Patrick appealed to the candidates in the Nov. 3 election to take a mature view of the social forces at work in America.

"It is our hope that the campaign will be conducted on a level which will tend to unite all peoples rather than divide the nation into factions of hatred and distrust," he concluded.

Mrs. Chatlos Is WSCS Speaker

Mrs. Sheila Chatlos, Emmitsburg, was the guest speaker for the September meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Centenary Methodist Church held last Tuesday evening.

The church. Her topic presentation was entitled "Life Within." Plans were made to hold the annual food sale on Friday, September 25, beginning at 3 p.m. Mrs. Ruth Smith, Mrs. Marian Study, Mrs. Estella Furlow and Mrs. Edna Waltz constitute the food sale committee. Mrs. Smith, president, presided for the meeting. Thank-you notes were read from Mrs. Ethel Steick and Mrs. Audrey Osborne. Two calls were reported by the cheer committee. Mrs. Evelyn Brown and Mrs. Carrie Byers were appointed as the September, October and November cheer committee.

During the social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Bertha Shull and Mrs. Edith Hanlon. The Tuesday, October 13 meeting will feature a Halloween party with all members attending in costume attire. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lois Sells and Mrs. Isa Wulferf.

Soviets Propose To Encourage Profits

MOSCOW (AP) — The economic chief of the Russian Republic has endorsed a proposed reform of the Soviet economic structure which would make profits the index of factory performance.

Sergei Afanasyev, chairman of the republic's economic council, gave an important boost to the pressure for sweeping reforms in the economic system in an article in the Communist party organ, Pravda.

Pravda has been publicizing proposals to give factory bosses a chance to pursue profits by abolishing many of the detailed plan targets they are obliged to fulfill.

Belts were first used in churches about 900 A.D.

Train Strikes Gas Truck; Two Killed

CLIFTON, Tex. (AP) — Flames engulfed the locomotive and two trainmen died as a passenger train hit a tank truck carrying 8,000 gallons of gasoline Monday.

Kirby R. Vaughn, 71, of Temple, Tex., the engineer, and Leslie B. Himmelreich, 38, of Cleburne, Tex., were killed. The truck driver, Aubrey Butler, 41, of Hubbard City, Tex., suffered burns.

None of the train's 81 passengers was hurt. The Santa Fe's Chief No. 16, was en route from Galveston to Chicago.

SCOTT LISTS MAJOR ISSUES IN CAMPAIGN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott today listed "peace, jobs, civil liberties and the elimination of corruption in government" as the four major issues facing the nation and candidates for office in November.

In remarks prepared for delivery before the Poor Richard Club here, the Republican candidate for re-election made these observations:

"Peace—'America must do everything in its power to maintain peace and freedom throughout the world. When I voted to ratify the nuclear test ban treaty, it was one of the most important votes I cast. It went to the heart of the question whether the United States can negotiate from strength.'"

JOBS

Jobs—Scott said that no one in the present administration has been able to "make a substantial dent in the economic malignancy" of five per cent unemployment. He cited his accomplishment in gaining "some $48 million of additional work" for the state's coal miners. He has been "less successful," he said, in persuading Congress to enact "tougher anti-dumping legislation" and to tighten up on the "buy American" provisions of government purchasing. He pledged to continue his efforts.

Civil Liberties — Racial problems, discrimination and defamation of persons "because of their religion or national origin" were singled out by Scott as special areas requiring legislative attention.

CORRUPTION

Corruption—The Bobby Baker case, said Scott, "continues to haunt the nation as an example of corruption of those high in the government." He said the Senate is "unable, unwilling or unsuited to eliminate" such corruption.

Scott said that if he can make a contribution in these areas, he "will have kept faith with my constituents—and with my own conscience."

KILLED BY HIS CAR

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Landis G. Evans, 72, of Lancaster R. D. 4 was killed Monday when his car rolled backward in his driveway and an open door caught him and swept him under the wheels.

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Erich M. Uhlmann, 63, a pioneer in the use of electron therapy, died Monday of cancer. He was director of the tumor clinic and the Department of Therapeutic Radiology at Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center.

APPROVE AID TO RAILROAD

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The South eastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority approved Monday a motion to help the financially troubled Reading Railroad continue commuter service in the Philadelphia area.

The authority, however, did not divulge what form the aid might take.

H. Merle Mulloy, general counsel and vice president of the Reading, repeated Monday that the Reading must have help to overcome the deficit it says is incurred because of its commuter system.

John A. Bailey, deputy general manager of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority, said his agency does not have the money to cover Reading's deficit.

But he said that funds may be available in a long-term federal grant.

Walter B. Gibbons, an authority member, expressed doubt that a bond issue could be floated to help the Reading. "No one would buy bonds unless they were sure of getting paid," said Gibbons.

BOY FRIEND OF MISS AMERICA IS "UNHAPPY"

NEW YORK (AP)—A strenuous and glamorous year lay ahead today for Vonda Kay Van Dyke, the new Miss America, but Vonda isn't sure whether she has awakened yet from a dream.

As the newly crowned beauty queen awaited her first meeting with the New York press, her boy friend in Phoenix, Ariz., was hoping that Vonda's year in the spotlight would not change their lives.

Vonda left Atlantic City Sunday, still tearful and wonder-struck by her victory in the nation's oldest beauty pageant Saturday night.

The 21-year-old brunette, her brown eyes glistening as she dabbed them with a tissue, described the dreamlike quality of her coronation.

BOY FRIEND FRETS

"After making the walk back and forth on the runway, I started up the steps to the chair. I thought that when I got up there, I would put out my hand and it would not be there," she said.

In Phoenix Duane Kapp, 22, a law student at the University of Arizona, was "not too sure what this is going to mean for the two of us."

"I don't quite know how to react, but I know I feel unhappy for myself," he said after Miss Arizona's crowning. "There's a chance this may affect her life, and if this happens I know she won't be the girl I knew and the girl I loved."

Vonda and young Kapp have known each other six years. While they had made no definite plans, marriage "was one of those things we knew would be in the future," he said.

Vonda's immediate future involves a month here posing for pictures and being fitted out with a wardrobe.

A senior at Arizona State University, she will postpone her final year of college until after she tours as Miss America.

First prize in the pageant brought her a $10,000 scholarship and an estimated $80,000 in personal appearance contracts. Another $1,000 scholarship came with her selection by the other 49 girls as the pageant's Miss Congeniality — the first time that a Miss America had won the popularity contest.

SCOTT HITS LBJ POLICIES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott, Republican candidate for re-election, said Monday the Johnson administration keeps talking economy, but the government goes deeper in debt.

"In order to take care of this so-called economy, the federal debt limit was increased by $15 billion and the deficit was increased by $2 billion," Scott declared in remarks prepared for the Republican State Finance Committee here.

"Furthermore," he went on, "the secretary of the treasury says that a deficit is planned for this year and another for next year."

Scott, running against Democrat Genevieve Blatt in the November election, said in July alone the administration hired one new federal employee per minute.

"It has been revealed by the joint House-Senate committee on reduction of nonessential federal expenditures that the Johnson administration hired 10,303 additional civilian employees during July," Scott stated, adding:

"That amounts to one new employe every minute of the working day — a four-fold increase over the average for the previous 42 of the Kennedy-Johnson administration."

Poll Shows Women Voters Favor LBJ

NEW YORK (AP)—News-week magazine says a poll taken for it by Louis Harris showed women voters favor President Johnson's election over the Republican candidate, Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, 64 per cent to 36 per cent.

The Harris presidential poll of men gave Johnson a 60-40 per cent advantage over Goldwater.

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If you want to live longer, become a business executive. They have a longer than average life expectancy. Despite job strains they rate high in health. A survey found three of four were free of organic ailments.

It takes the harvest of 50 coffee trees to supply one American family its yearly intake.

BILLION COMIC BOOKS

Literary Note: U. S. children and grown ups spent $100 million annually to buy a billion comic books. That's four times as many books as are added each year to all the public libraries in the nation.

The dragonfly is "Mr. Superbug" in the insect world. It can fly up to 25 miles an hour, compared to six for the honeybee, five for the housefly and three for the mosquito.

The Japanese diet is improving. Their average daily intake of food has risen to a record 2,282 calories. The average in well-fed North America is 3,110.

U.S. Air Force Gen. John K. Gerhart predicts that by 1975 some 10,000 man-made objects may be orbiting the earth.

WORLD WATER SHORTAGE

Our quibbling notables: "The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother" — the Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, Notre Dame president.

A world water shortage is threatened not by man's thirst but by the demands of industry and crops. It takes 400 tons of water to produce one ton of rolled steel, and two tons of water to produce a single loaf of bread from grain to grocery shelf.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

Folklore: If a girl cuts a little of her hair off during a new moon, it will grow in better. If a housewife drops her dishrag during the day, she can expect company before nightfall. Girls who make good-looking beds will wed good-looking husbands.

Items to amaze your bartender with: The cow was domesticated about 9,000 B.C. Men are three times as likely as women to die from heart prostration. Two out of three first quarrels between honeymooners concern money.

To Probe Death Of Negro In Jail

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Police say they are going to investigate a jail death of a Negro which triggered a demonstration of Negroes.

Some 20 young Negroes picketed Saturday night outside the Crawford County Jail here and claimed that the death of Robert L. Winn, 25, of Meadville was the result of police brutality.

Police said Winn hanged himself in a cell Thursday night after he was arrested for drunk and disorderly conduct.

The demonstration was peaceful and the pickets disbanded peacefully.

At a conference of Negro leaders and city and state police, Lt. Joseph Dussia of the state police said a thorough investigation would be made.
